

Lanarkshire Care Partners

Duty of Candour Annual Report 2021

1. About Lanarkshire Care Partners

Lanarkshire Care Partners (LCP) provides personal and social care services. Our main aim is to support the needs of the individual (service user) and help them to enjoy a more independent life in their home and in their community. We provide a care service that is completely centred around our clients. By involving them in every decision-making process possible, and providing all information available, we can work together to create a custom support package that is designed specifically to meet client's needs.
