COMPANY PROFILE

Steel Modular ("SMI") is a U.S. manufacturing firm leading new innovation in the mobile and modular building industry. SMI offers turn-key general contracting and development services to clients delivering cost-effective and efficient temporary and/or permanent steel modular buildings utilizing pre-fabricated and reclaimed resources in the process. SMI can customize the perfect solution for a client's every need. The company also offers a host of ancillary logistics and procurement services to finish-out every project.

SMI is a woman owned & operated small business started in 2018. Partnering and subcontracting with other women-owned, small, veteran, minority and under-utilized businesses, SMI is strategically positioned to cater to government and non-government organizations for all permanent and mobile modular steel building needs.
