ISIDORO FERNANDEZ: OUR NEW DEACON CANDIDATE

It is my pleasure and pride to announce to our parish community that our parishioners, Isidoro Fernandez, together with 19 other men from around the diocese, was received as an official candidate to the Order of Deacon, on Friday, September 22, 2017, at Corpus Christi Church in Carol Stream. This is the first major milestone in Isidoro's program since he started his formation for the diaconate two years ago.

It was a pleasure to join him and his family at this mass of candidacy. Mariana, Isidoro's wife, also participated in the rite of candidacy by promising her support to the vocation of her husband. Their three daughters – Guadalupe, Maria and Sara – were all beaming with pride to see their father present himself to the call to serve the church. A few other John Paul II parishioners showed their support to Isidoro, by attending the liturgy – Gloria and Lalo Mendez, Tom Clocksin, Alex Quezada and Kathy Dummer.

Isidoro and Mariana were among the very first St. Teresa parishioners I met when I came to Kankakee six years ago. They welcomed me as their new pastor with such enthusiasm, and I was immediately inspired by their dedication in their ministry at the church. Isidoro, even then, was very active in prayer group, nocturnal adoration, evangelization, and liturgical ministries and Knights of Columbus. And his entire family has participated not only in the Hispanic events and liturgies but has really constantly served as a bridge between cultures, by participating in many English liturgies and the events of the church as a whole. Now as parishioners of Saint John Paul II, I know that they will continue to be flagbearers of the culture that we are fostering as a community. And even more so, as Isidoro continues in his formation to the diaconate, I am excited that some of our efforts to foster the spirit of service in our parish are bearing some fruit! Praise the Lord!

I ask then that as a community, we continue to pray for Isidoro and his family. And for their friends and personal support system in our parish, I want to say thank you to all of you, because deacons and priests do not pop up like mushrooms out of nowhere, but instead they are born, nurtured and fostered by the community, by the work of the Holy Spirit.

I want to ask our parish community to continue to pray for vocations. As of this press time, I also know that there are two other parishioners who have started their discernment process for the diaconate, and another person is prayerfully deciding how to respond to the call that he has been hearing from deep within. If all of these come into fruition, we will have six deacons by the time I conclude a six-year term as the first pastor of JP II. That is absolutely amazing!

Isidoro, I am very proud of you, and your family. May God continue to guide your steps to serving the Lord in His Church, and may His blessings be upon you always.

Called to love and serve,
Fr. Sunny Castillo

ISIDORO FERNANDEZ: NUESTRO NUEVO ASPIRANTE AL DIACONADO

Me es grato anunciar a nuestra familia parroquial que nuestros fieles, Isidoro Fernandez, junto con otros 19 hombres ubicados en la diócesis, fue recibido oficialmente como aspirante a la Orden de Diácono, el viernes, 22 de septiembre, 2017, en la Iglesia Corpus Christi en Carol Stream. Esta es la primera piedra miliaria en el programa de Isidoro desde que comenzó su formación para el diaconado hace dos años.

Con placer estuve con él y con su familia en la misa de candidatura. Mariana, esposa de Isidoro, también participó en el rito de candidatura prometiendo su apoyo a la vocación de su esposo. Sus tres hijas – Guadalupe, María y Sara – estaban radiantes de alegría al ver a su padre responder al llamado de servir a la iglesia. Otros feligreses de Juan Pablo II estuvieron presentes en la liturgia para mostrar su apoyo a Isidoro – Gloria y Lalo Mendez, Tom Colcksin, Alex Quezada y Kathy Dummer.

Isidoro y Mariana fueron unos de los primeros feligreses de Sta. Teresa que conocí cuando llegué a Kankakee hace seis años. Ellos me dieron la bienvenida como su nuevo pastor con tanto entusiasmo que me sentí inmediatamente inspirado por su mutua dedicación en su ministerio a la iglesia. Isidoro, en aquel entonces, era muy activo en un grupo de oración, la adoración nocturna, evangelización, ministerios litúrgicos y Caballeros de Colón. Y toda su familia ha participado no solo en eventos Hispánicos y liturgias pero realmente y constantemente han servido como puentes entre las culturas, participando en muchos eventos litúrgicos en Inglés y en general en eventos eclesiales. Ahora como feligreses de San Juan Pablo II, yo sé que ellos continuarán llevando el estandarte de la cultura que estamos promoviendo como comunidad. Y además, según Isidoro continúa en su formación al diaconado, me siento emocionado que algunos de nuestros esfuerzos para promover el espíritu de servicio en nuestra parroquia están produciendo algunos frutos! ¡Alabado sea el Señor!

Entonces les pido que como comunidad, continuemos orando por Isidoro y por su familia. Y por sus amistades y por el apoyo personal de parte de nuestra parroquia, doy las gracias a todos ustedes, porque los diáconos y sacerdotes no brotan como hongos de la nada, pero nacen, se nutren y se fomentan por la comunidad, por medio de la obra del Espíritu Santo.

Quiero pedir a nuestra comunidad parroquial que continúen orando por vocaciones. Actualmente conozco a otros dos feligreses que han comenzado un proceso de discernimiento para el diaconado, y otra persona que esta orando y decidiendo cómo va a responder a la llamada que ha estado escuchando dentro de sí. Si todo esto llega a realizarse, entonces contaremos con seis diáconos cuando yo cumpla mi plazo de seis años como primer pastor de JP II. ¡Eso es absolutamente asombroso!

Isidoro, estoy muy complacido de tí, y de tu familia. Que Dios continúe guiando tus pasos en servir al Señor y a Su Iglesia, y que Sus bendiciones te acompañen siempre.

Llamado a amar y servir,
Padre Sunny Castillo
