I AM THE LIVING BREAD
which came down from heaven:
if any man eat of this bread,
he shall live for ever

JOHN 6:51

“Yo soy el pan vivo
que ha bajado del cielo.
El que coma de este pan vivirá para siempre.
El pan que yo dare es mi carne, y lo dare para la vida del mundo.”

Juan 6:51

Greetings from DEACON NESTOR SANCHEZ

Born in the State of Mexico, I served in the religious community called “Missionaries Servant of the Word” for ten years. Because this was a missionary community, I had the dream of becoming a missionary priest in another country where I would learn another language and another culture. After making the decision to leave this particular community, I considered joining a diocese in Mexico. However, then I met Father Burke Masters who told me about the opportunity in the diocese of Joliet. I accepted this challenge, knowing that it was one step closer to fulfilling my dream. My family was very happy with this decision and they supported me, all of them: my parents and my two brothers.

I arrived in the United States in 2015 and started my studies at the Pontifical College Josephinum (PCJ) in Columbus, Ohio. I must admit that learning “regular” English—as well as “textbook” English—and becoming accustomed to American culture (not to mention participating in rigorous coursework) was, at times, overwhelming. I have always been determined to achieve my goal, which is why I told myself not to give up. Fortunately, I have been encouraged all along the way by my teachers and diocesan brothers.

I have found my Apostolic work to be particularly helpful over the past year. I was assigned to Ohio State University Medical Center as a Minister of Communion. By visiting the sick, I have witnessed the power of the faith within those who are experiencing pain and suffering. As a result, I have felt an impact on my own faith and vocation.

I am very excited for the experience of living this summer in the community of Saint John Paul II. I hope I can help the community in their encounter with God, and although I have many limits, with the help of God, I want to be an instrument of his grace for all people in the parish. I know that you are very kind and loving to your priests, that they love this parish, and that they are willing to help more people to know the love of God.

I hope to not disappoint your trust and affection, and may this summer be filled with joy and many encounters with God.

Deacon Nestor Sanchez

Saludos del DIÁCONO NESTORSÁNCHEZ

Nací en el Estado de México, estuve al servicio de la comunidad de religiosas “Misioneras Sirvientes de la Palabra” por diez años. Porque esta era una comunidad misionera, yo soñaba ser un sacerdote misionero en otro país donde tendría que aprender otro idioma y conocer otra cultura. Después de hacer la decisión de dejar esta comunidad, yo pensé agregarme a una diócesis en México. Sin embargo, luego conocí al Padre Burke Masters quién me presentó la oportunidad en la diócesis de Joliet. Yo acepté este desafío, reconociendo que era un paso hacia la realización de mi sueño. Mi familia estaba muy contenta con esta decisión, y todos me apoyaban: mis padres y mis dos hermanos.

Llegué a los Estados Unidos en 2015 y comencé mis estudios en el Colegio Pontificio Josephinum (PCJ) en Columbus, Ohio. Tengo que admitir que el aprender Inglés “regular”—como también el Inglés de “libro manual”—y llegar a sentirme bien con la cultura Americana (sin mencionar participando en trabajos de estudio riguroso) era, algunas veces, irresistible. Siempre he sido determinado en realizar mi meta, por eso me animaba a sí mismo a no desistir. Afortunadamente, siempre me he sentido animado por mis profesores y mis hermanos diocesanos.

He visto que mi trabajo Apostólico me ha ayudado especialmente a través de este año pasado. Estaba asignado a ser Ministro de Comunión en el Centro Médico de la Universidad en el Estado de Ohio. Por medio de mis visitas a los enfermos, he sido testigo del poder de la fe en aquellos que sienten dolor y sufrimiento. Por eso mismo, he sentido un impacto sobre mi propia fe y vocación.

Me siento muy emocionado al considerar con anticipación el vivir este verano en la comunidad de San Juan Pablo II. Espero ayudar a la comunidad en su encuentro con Dios, y aunque me siento limitado, con la ayuda de Dios, yo quiero ser un instrumento de su gracia para toda la gente en esta parroquia. Yo sé que la gente es muy amable, que aprecia a sus sacerdotes, que aprecia a su parroquia y que están dispuestos en ayudar más a los fieles en conocer el amor a Dios.

Espero no decepcionar su confianza y afección, y que éste verano esté repleto de alegría en nuestros encuentros mucho con Dios.

Diácono Nestor Sánchez

"In 1943, when France was occupied by German Nazis, the search for Jews began. In the face of grave peril, Sister Agnes convinced her mother superior to open their convent and offer refuge to a Jewish family...Let us devote ourselves anew to following wherever the Lord leads. Let us take courage from their example of faith."

Enfrentando graves peligros, la hermana agnes convenció a su madre superior para que refugiara en su convent a una familia judía...Renovemos nuestra dedicación a seguir al Señor por donde Él nos conduzca. Llenémonos de valor con su ejemplo de fe."

Remembering St. John Paul II Parish in your Estate Plans

A bequest is a specific provision in your will or living trust, leaving money or other assets to St. John Paul II.

Some bequests are unrestricted, given for general purposes; and, some bequests are restricted, given for very specific purposes such as the permanent endowment, building maintenance or a long-term project.

Whether you are writing your first will or updating an existing one, we hope you'll include a gift for St. John Paul II in your plans.
