TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME SEPTEMBER 30, 2018

“There is no one who performs a mighty deed in my name who can at the same time speak ill of me. For whoever is not against us is for us. Anyone who gives you a cup of water to drink because you belong to Christ, amen, I say to you, will surely not lose his reward. Mark 9:39-41

“No hay nadie que realice una obra poderosa ya que nadie puede hacer un milagro en mi nombre y luego hablar mal de mí. El que no está contra nosotros está con nosotros. Y cualquiera que les dé de beber un vaso de agua porque son de Cristo, yo les aseguro que no quedará sin recompensa.” Marcos 9:39-41

PROVIDENCE UPON PROVIDENCE: A FEW PASSING THOUGHTS FROM THE MIND OF YOUR PASTOR

May I first begin by saying that we as a community are so blessed. I was talking to Fr. Joel over breakfast and he was telling me about God's Providence – a familiar topic, a foundation to every spirituality.

“Can you imagine how vast the universe is, and in the many galaxies out there in the vastness of the open space, God's providence is at work in the level of our smallness?” I am paraphrasing, but that's the idea. If we imagine how huge the universe is, it is mind boggling that we are able to recognize that God cares, in the level of our small little space of the universe. I call it the micromanaging love of God! I love it.

God cares about our parish, and we are fortunate to have Fr. Joel Fortier again with us this week. He is such an amazing mentor and his insights on relationship and the connectedness of everything there is in the universe is something that keeps me excited every time we have an opportunity to talk about anything at all. I am forever grateful for the many ways that he has blessed me and our parish community here in Kankakee. He is truly a godfather to us, so enjoy his presence and his gifts while he is here.

May I also say again that we are truly blessed with an amazing person in Fr. John Horan. One of the things that I am grateful about him is that he has initiative. He doesn't wait for instructions in order to exercise his priesthood. He goes and looks for things to do. He visits the hospital, takes care of the pastoral care commission, gives feedback and suggestions about our liturgies, and even plays football (soccer) with the kids! He goes to the school during lunch hours, and stops to talk to parishioners in order to get to know them better. God sent a great priest to our parish! If that is not God's providence, I don't know what is.

I had an opportunity to experience something special over a week ago, when I went to visit the farm of Mark and Terri O'Connor. I was in the combine, I climbed the silo, I laid down in a truck full of freshly harvested golden corn, and I rode the loader that transfers the corn from the combine to the truck! I heard stories of God's Providence in the midst of a hurricane, and I shared the experience for the first time with Fr. John Horan. We left there feeling good, thanks to the O'Connors and their John Deere toys, I had another item on my bucket list checked off.

I am visiting Fatima and Lourdes this week, and you are all in my heart, mind and prayers. God bless our parish and may the providence of God continue to manifest itself all around this community. And may our hearts' one final response say, “Thank you, Lord!” when we pray together at mass. God is good, all the time. And all the time, God is good!

After the heart of Jesus,
Fr. Sunny Castillo

PROVIDENCIA SOBRE PROVIDENCIA: ALGUNOS PENSAMIENTOS PASAJEROS DE LA MENTE DE SU PASTOR

Primeramente les diré que nosotros como comunidad somos bendecidos. Hablaba con el Padre Joel cuando estábamos en el desayuno y él me platicaba acerca de la Providencia de Dios – un tema familiar, la base de toda espiritualidad.

“Pueden imaginarse qué grande es el universo, y en muchas galaxias allá lejos en la inmensidad del espacio, la providencia de Dios trabaja a nivel de nuestra pequeñez?” Estoy calculando, pero ésa es la idea. Si nos imaginamos que tan grande es el universo, nos sentimos aturridos y reconocemos qué grande es Dios y cómo se preocupa por nosotros. Es el amor grandioso de Dios! Me encanta.

Dios toma en cuenta nuestra parroquia, y somos afortunados en tener el Padre Joel Fortier nuevamente con nosotros. Él es un gran guía y su perspicacia de relacionar y conectar todas las cosas en el universo es algo de gran interés para mí cada vez que tenemos la oportunidad de platicar. Siempre estoy muy agradecido porque en muchos sentidos él nos proporciona muchas bendiciones a mí y a nuestra parroquia. En realidad él es nuestro padrino, y gozamos de su presencia y sus dones mientras está aquí.

Nuevamente, reconozco qué en realidad somos bendecidos por la amable presencia del Padre John Horan. Una cosa que yo aprecio y agradezco es que él tiene iniciativa. Él no espera recibir instrucciones para ejercer su sacerdocio. Él va y busca cosas que hacer. Él visita a los enfermos en el hospital, atiende la comisión de cuidado pastoral, responde a las sugerencias acerca de la liturgia, y hasta juega futbol con los niños! Durante la hora del lonche, visita la escuela y habla con los feligreses para conocerlos mejor. Dios, por Su divina providencia, nos ha mandado a un gran sacerdote.

Hace unos días se me presentó la oportunidad de algo muy especial, cuando visité la hacienda de Mark y Terri O'Connor. Yo estaba en la maquina trilladora, subí al asiento, me acosté en ella llena de maíz dorado fresco, y manejé el cargador que transporta el maíz de la maquina trilladora a la troca! Escuché historias de la Providencia de Dios mientras había un huracán, y compartí la experiencia por primera vez con el Padre John Horan. Partimos de allí sintiéndonos tranquilos, gracias a los O'Connors y sus implementos de John Deere.

Voy en vuelo a visitar Fátima y Lourdes ésta semana, y llevo a todos en mi corazón, mente y oraciones. Que Dios bendiga nuestra parroquia y que la providencia de Dios continúe manifestándose a toda ésta comunidad. Y que de todo corazón respondamos, “Gracias, Señor!” cuando recemos unidos en la misa. Dios es bueno todo el tiempo. Y todo el tiempo, Dios es bueno!

Tras el corazón de Jesús,
Padre Sunny Castillo
