Developing Strong Followers to Become Strong Leaders

The purpose of the Leadership Institute is to provide existing and emerging leaders with strategies that will help them positively influence their followers' value, promote collaboration, foster healthy relationships, and inspire others to take on leadership roles in their homes, churches, schools, careers, and communities.

President, Evangelist Nakatia Clay
Vice President, Msn. Henrine Booker

Secretary, Sister Alma Davis
Treasurer, Elder Timothy Webb

Leadership Institute Moderator: Brother Evan Lee

Brother Evan Lee is a seasoned detective with the Miami-Dade Police Department's, Warrants Division. Evan's dedication to his craft and exemplary service to the community have earned him the honor of being named the 2024 Castillo-Hawthorn Detective of the Year. He also leads by example as the President of the Progressive Officers Club, also known as POC, by demonstrating his commitment to fostering growth and camaraderie within law enforcement.

Beyond his professional achievements, Evan is a devoted Husband to his wife, Kasey, and proud father to his two sons, 17 year old Evan Jr. and 1 year old Kaleb. Evan's journey transformed when he accepted Christ the first week of December, 2011 and is a member of this very church, Pentecost Power.

His steadfast devotion to his Lord and Savior serves as a guiding light in all aspects of his life, infusing his work with compassion, integrity, and unwavering moral conviction. When not immersed in the complexities of Law enforcement, Evan finds peace in working out whenever possible and spending time with his growing family.

Developing Strong Followers to Become Strong Leaders

FRIDAY, APRIL 12TH 2024

Servant Leadership

This leadership style shifts the focus from "strong leaders" to "strong followers." Individuals who use this style take a "servant first" approach when leading others and cultivate the potential they see in EACH person. They create safe and supportive environments where individuals can develop and enhance their leadership abilities.

Pastor, Elder David McGhee

11am-12pm

Elder McGhee's ministry began with Jesus at an early age. At the age of 9 years old while attending the House of God Church under the Leadership of Bishop Roosevelt Sawyer with his mother, Elder McGhee received the Baptism of the Holy Ghost calling on the name of JESUS. He served in Ministry several years and in order to have his ministry complete he is blessed with a beautiful wife Sister Yviane Sony McGhee. They have been married going on 24 years and from this union they have 1 Daughter, Daviana and 1 Son David McGhee.

Elder McGhee was ordained as an Evangelist at the age of 18 and became an Elder November 15, 2002, at the New Beginning Holiness Church under the Leadership of the Early Bishop B F Carter who is his spiritual father.

Currently Elder McGhee travels around and preaches the gospel. His motto is "I Must Work the Works of Him Who Sent Me While It Is Day for When Night Cometh No Man Can Work". Elder McGhee holds a Bachelors degree in biblical studies and Master of Arts Degree from Trinity International University. On November 22, 2002 Elder David McGhee was diagnosed with (APL) Leukemia and has a testimony of Gods healing power. His messages and themes from God's word are for the people to be edified from the gospel. Elder McGhee's goal is to be SAVED and live according to scriptures and endeavor to be in that number when the saints go marching in

FRIDAY, APRIL 12TH 2024

Shared Leadership

This leadership style offers followers the opportunity to develop and enhance their leadership skills by sharing leadership responsibilities. Leaders allow followers to complete tasks in ways that show their creativity and individuality. These leaders understand the importance of creating safe and nurturing environments that allow emerging leaders to practice, learn from their mistakes, and grow in their leadership skills.

Bishop, Dr. Mark Jones

12:10pm-1:10pm

Bishop, Dr Mark E. Jones is a Business Administration graduate of Austin Peay, Tennessee State University and Jones College (January 2011) with a major in Systems Management. He has worked through a number of Bible schools and has obtained an M.Min (Master of Ministry) in Christian leadership and a Th, D in Biblical studies and leadership. He is married to his one and only wife for forty-six (46) years, Deborah Anne Jones, and is the proud father of two children: DeAngela Y. Jones, a professional LPN, RN and Mark E. Jones II, a medical computer specialist. Bishop Mark E. Jones was born in Milwaukee Wisconsin.

It was in April 1978 during his military service that he repented of all sins. He was baptized in the Holy Ghost three days later (on a Saturday evening at his Pastor's house) speaking in other tongues as the Spirit of the Lord gave the utterance. Bishop Jones went to a church service at Pentecost Power Church, Florida City Florida, Bishop Floyd Scott was the pastor. It is to be noted that Bishop Floyd Scott is currently the Emeritus Presiding Bishop of the National Pentecostal Power Churches Inc. He was at that time baptized in Jesus Name and introduced to the Apostle's Doctrine. Dr. Mark E. Jones joined the U.S. Military in April of 1976 and completed twenty -four (24) years of military service.

Transformational Leadership

Individuals with this leadership style understand the importance of opening the door and allowing new ideas to enter. They are not afraid of the creativity and potential of followers and other emerging leaders. This leadership style encourages individuals to learn and grow their own leadership skills to improve their path to success.

Evangelist Joyce Lee

1:20pm-2:20

Evangelist Joyce Sue Lee of Milwaukee WI., went down in Jesus name May of 1982. She is an Evangelist and Sunday school teacher in her local church assembly, Pentecostal Power Church of Milwaukee WI., under the leadership of Bishop Ellis and Lady Paulette Murchison. On a national level, Evangelist Lee serves as the Women's Work President for NPPCI and served with the NPPCI Youth Department for over 18 years from Secretary, President, and Advisor. Evangelist Lee started Ministry on Wheels Soul Winning Outreach and has done prison ministry for over 10 years. She currently works for Milwaukee Public School system as well as owns and operates her own catering business "Lee's Catering" Oh Taste and See.

She is the mother of five children, three of which are married and have families of their own. She is the wife of Deacon Tony Lee and together they share 10 beautiful grandchildren. In June of 2024 she and Deacon Lee will celebrate 40 years of marriage.

Evangelist Lee says, "I love the Lord. I love spending time with my family and planting flowers in the Spring. Cooking has become a natural. I love feeding people and talking about the Word of God while eating."

It is important to note that Evangelist Lee is also the creator of a curriculum that enables those in ministry to more effectively lead God's people and those pursuing an encounter with Christ in altar worship. The curriculum, "Effective Altar Worship" has been presented in several NPPCI Conferences and is sought after by church assemblies outside of the NPPCI organization.
