Silk Stockings

I found this recipe many years ago at the Sauza tequila factory. Other than a shot of thousand dollar (or more) brandy, it is my favorite after-dinner drink, and it might just be the best one that is made with tequila.

Ingredients

1 1/2 ounces silver tequila
2 ounces evaporated milk
1 ounce white creme de cacao
1 ounce grenadine
1/2 cup crushed ice
Powdered cinnamon
Cherry

Directions

1. Make the drink. Put all the ingredients except the cinnamon and cherry in a blender, and blend until thoroughly pureed and frothy. Pour into a cocktail glass, sprinkle with the cinnamon, and top with the cherry.
