CURT WILSON

Curt Wilson was born in Fort Worth and is a graduate of Polytechnic High School. He has a BME and MM degrees from TCU. Additional study in composition was completed at the University of North Texas. Curt Wilson has taught at TCU since 1976. Prior to that, he served as Director of Bands at Ashland University; Ashland, Ohio (1972-1976). From 1968-1972, he was on the music faculty at Valley City State College; Valley City, North Dakota. As a professional woodwind performer, he has played with Fred Waring and the Pennsylvaians (1966-68), Tex Beneke, Tommy Dorsey-Warren Covington, Harvey Anderson Orchestra, and many others.

Mr. Wilson has written more than 150 compositions and arrangements for marching band, wind ensemble, jazz ensemble, symphony orchestra, chamber ensembles, and choir. Curt Wilson has music published by Really Good Music, Inc., Shoop Publications, and Walrus Music. As a member of ASCAP, he has received an ASCA(PLUS) Award every year since 1985 honoring his commitment to the composing and performance of serious concert music.

JOE ECKERT

Joe Eckert is the first full-time Professor of saxophone at Texas Christian University in Fort Worth, Texas, joining the faculty in the fall of 2007. From 1987-2004, he served as adjunct faculty at Shenandoah University in Winchester, Virginia and assumed full-time duties from 2004-07 as Professor of Saxophone and Director of Jazz Studies. He retired in 2004 from a 20-year career as lead alto saxophonist/woodwind specialist and director for the USAF Band's Airmen of Note in Washington, D.C.

J. ERIC WILSON

J. Eric Wilson is beginning his fifth year as Director of Bands at Baylor University where he administrates the band program, conducts the Wind Ensemble, and teaches and oversees the undergraduate and graduate conducting curriculum. Additionally, he has supervised student teachers and served as Chair of the Ensemble Division for four years. Prior to joining the Baylor faculty, he served twelve years on the faculty of Abilene Christian University. Dr. Wilson holds both a Doctor of Musical Arts degree (wind band conducting) and a Master of Music degree (saxophone performance and conducting) from the University of Michigan and a Bachelor of Music Education degree from Abilene Christian University. Prior to his university appointments, Dr. Wilson taught in the Texas public school system.

Dr. Wilson is in demand as a conducting clinician, adjudicator and performing artist. As a conductor, he has directed numerous regional honor bands and conducted his own groups at conventions, most recently at the 2009 TMEA Annual Conference and the 2009 CBDNA National Conference. As a saxophonist, Dr. Wilson has performed as orchestral saxophonist, recitalist, and soloist with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, San Antonio Symphony, Owensboro Symphony Orchestra, Waco Symphony Orchestra, Abilene Philharmonic Orchestra, San Angelo Symphony, and Midland-Odessa Symphony Orchestra, in addition to over 100 performances with bands, chamber ensembles, and pianists. He is also a former member of the nationally known saxophone quartet, Resounding Winds, with which he presented more than 300 concerts, workshops, clinics, seminars, and Arts-in-Education sessions in fifteen states.

Special thanks to Brent Colwell, Temple College (Symphonic Band Organizer); Darrell Brown, DelMar College (Music Organizer); Ken Booker, Lee College (Seating Audition Organizer); Sarah Burk, Blinn College (Percussion Organizer); Roy Allen, Brookhaven College (Concerto Competition Organizer); and all directors and applied faculty members who judged audition tapes and chair auditions.
