ALEX PARKER

ALEX PARKER is currently Director of Jazz Studies at Baylor University. He serves as the director of the Baylor Jazz Ensemble, the Baylor Concert Jazz Ensemble, jazz combos, jazz string quartet and teaches undergraduate and graduate students in several jazz disciplines. Mr. Parker holds a Master of Music degree from the University of Miami at Coral Gables and a Bachelor of Music degree from the Eastman School of Music. In the summer of 2005, Mr. Parker was elected President-Elect for the Texas Chapter of the International Association for Jazz Education. Before coming to Baylor, Mr. Parker was assistant band director and then head band director at Pflugerville High School. Prior to his position in the Pflugerville Independent School District, he served as band and orchestra director at Fort Lauderdale High School in Florida. His high school bands have been sweepstakes winners in both the Texas University Interscholastic League and the Florida Bandmasters Association. He was a full scholarship recipient at the University of Miami, where he studied jazz with Whit Sidner and conducting with Gary Green, and a merit scholarship recipient at the Eastman School of Music, where his principal teachers were Fred Sturm and Bill Dobbins (jazz) and Barbara Butler (trumpet). Mr. Parker has performed with the Eastman Jazz Ensembles, the Eastman Wind Ensemble and Philharmonia, as well as the Jazz, Salsa, and Wind Ensembles and combos at the University of Miami. His jazz and studio orchestra writing has been performed by ensembles and combos at Eastman, Miami and at Baylor. He continues to teach trumpet privately and perform as a free-lance musician.

Special thanks to Heather Mensch, Tyler Junior College – Jazz Organizer; and all directors and applied faculty members who judged the audition tapes.
