"Everything in life is a Landmark"

Our Mission...

Everything Landmark LLC is redefining innovation in the life sciences. Our mission is to generate new inventions that positively impact our daily lives. This is reinforced by rapid increases in research initiatives and the emergence of new capabilities in AI, automation, and data analytics, further accelerating the pace of innovation. As a leading life science company, Everything Landmark is aligned with the long-term market trends in health and genetics and is at the forefront of the wave of innovation coming from the increased interest of biological sciences.

Our Core Competencies...

Our services provide end-to-end, scalable, long-term solutions for research programs recruiting and mobilizing the appropriate personnel, skill sets, and technologies. Our model entails leveraging strategic partnerships with key stakeholders, building a value-add network, and providing customized solutions.

Our team and partners consist of Diaspora and African life scientists and business professionals with significant experience in African and US health ecosystems. We also have deep expertise in resource mobilization for pandemic response, logistics, healthcare and technology healthcare policy, data security and key relationships with government and private sector institutions across the Continent.
