

PERCEPTION INSTITUTE

Research. Representation. Reality.

perception.org

PERCEPTION INSTITUTE

Building Community Across Lines of Difference

INSIGHTS FROM IMPLICIT BIAS, RACIAL ANXIETY, AND STEREOTYPE THREAT

Even when we strive for equity for individuals of all different identities, our unconscious brains can get in the way of those goals. Perception Institute's Aya Taveras and expert educator and facilitator Tanya Friedman will explore key concepts from the mindsciences, including implicit bias, racial anxiety, and stereotype threat, to help explain why identity differences, particularly race and ethnicity, can be challenging, even within spaces where individuals hold egalitarian values.

Thursday, September 26, 2019
6:30 pm at P.S 261
314 Pacific St

Interpretation upon request

Food and refreshments will be provided

Public Transportation:

F, G to Bergen St.

This is a CEC15 (CECD15.org) Meeting, which is always free, open to the public. CEC15 is a state-mandated public body, independent of the DOE, that advocates for D15's public elementary and middle school students and their families. Please follow us at Facebook.com/CECD15 for news and event updates. Email us at CEC15@schools.nyc.gov to receive regular email updates about CEC15 events.