medications, nursing care, and more for thousands of senior sisters, brothers, and religious order priests. It also helps ensure younger members can continue the good works of their elders!

The Archdiocese of Louisville's Office of Multicultural Ministry and its Hispanic Ministry will observe the feast day of Our Lady of Guadalupe offering two celebrations this year. The schedule is as follows: Monday, December 11, 2017, Mass 11:00 PM, Holy Name Catholic Church, 2914 South Third Street, Louisville; Tuesday, December 12, 2017; Mass 7:00 PM, at Christ the King Catholic Church, 1000 Celina Road, Tompkinsville, KY. Archbishop Joseph E. Kurtz will be the Holy Mass celebrant at both locations. Our Lady of Guadalupe, also known as the Virgin of Guadalupe (Virgen de Guadalupe) and the patron of the Americas, is a 16th century apparition of the Virgin Mary which appeared to Juan Diego Cuauhtlatoatzin on the hill of Tepeyac, near Mexico City, from December 9 through December 12, 1531. She is the patroness of Mexico. For further information, please call the Office of Multicultural Ministry at (502)636-0296, ext. 1245.

Stewardship Reflection: "But according to his promise, we await new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells." [2 Peter 3:13] Advent is not a passive waiting, but an active preparation for a new heaven and new earth. Like John the Baptist, we must prepare the way of the Lord. In their pastoral letter on stewardship, the U.S. Bishops emphasize that we are active co-workers in God's creative plan.

Parenting Pointers: What does it mean to conceive a child? Whether you are the mother or father, it means your life is forever changed. It is the start of enduring love and sacrifice for another being put in your care. Pause today and ponder your creative role. [By Susan Vogt, www.SusanVogt.net]

Respect Life: The Respect Life Committee invites you to join them before Mass each Saturday and Sunday during Advent in reciting one decade of the Joyful Mysteries of the Most Holy Rosary. The Rosary begins inside the church at 11:40 AM on Sundays; the Saturday Rosary prayers will begin at 4:40 PM. Please help us to prayerfully discern how we, as a committee and as a church body, educate one another on the sacredness and dignity of every human life from conception to natural death.
