Dear Future Partners,

On Saturday, October 21, 2023 Loving Me 1st will host our 8th Annual Girls Conference at the Moreno Valley Civic Center. Our theme is, "I Matter!" We are so excited to have an opportunity to inspire and encourage the Girls in our community year after year.

We would love for you to become a partner for our Conference. Your partnership will help us accomplish the goal of encouraging and empowering young ladies to understand "They Matter." Loving Me 1st hopes that we can count on your partnership to make this year's event, one of our most successful yet!

Here are our 2022 Highlights

- 275 attendees (including Girls & their parents)
- Over 35 giveaways
- T-shirts and bags of goodies for each attendee
- Girls wrote a purpose statement to remind them of their purpose
- Clothing giveaway
- Our parent sessions, well attended!
- Over 10 Volunteers
- 2 $500 Scholarships to local High School Seniors

Each year we bring in great speakers to help empower our girls and encourage their parents. Through workshops, keynote speaker, and building new friendships, our attendees are inspired to become more confident in themselves to help them love who they are 1st.

If you are interested in any of the levels attached, please reach out to Kama Burton for more information. Thank you in advance for your Partnership! We hope to see you at the I Matter 8th Annual girls Conference. By the way, please go to our website for more information. Lovingmefirst.org.

Sincerely,

Kama Burton, Founder
