VBS PLANNING MEETING

After service on 5/12, there will be a short (since it's Mother's Day) VBS planning meeting in Weeks Hall. Lots of hands are needed to spread the love of God to His children and make this event a success.

VBS will be held in August (most likely the week of August 12th). If you would like to be part of this exciting ministry; please contact Pastor Saurman or Doreen Huggett.

BABY SHOWER

On Sunday, May 19th, after the service, we are hosting a Baby Shower for our Administrative Assistant, Emily Carraway, her husband Ryan, and their soon to arrive baby girl, Annabelle. All are welcome to join in this celebration! No gifts are necessary but if you'd like to bless the family, they are registered on Amazon. If you have any questions, please contact Linda Bloomfield.

IMAGES IN THE READINGS

John writes about the name of God. When we say, “Stop in the name of the law,” we mean that our very invoking of “the law” brings with it the authority behind the law, the power of the law. So the name of God conveys divine mercy and might. Jews still today, careful not to misuse God’s name, invoke Hashem, “the Name,” as a circumlocution for God. Christians can call upon the name of the Lord by invoking Jesus Christ. Baptism lays upon us the name of the triune God.

Both the fourth evangelist and the author of 1 John see their writings as essential testimony to the truth of belief in Christ. A testimony is a sworn statement about the facts and meaning of a situation.

Many ancient societies, including biblical Israel, made “allotments” and chose leaders by casting lots, in the belief that the result was divinely ordered. Amish communities still today choose their annual leader by a method of casting lots: whichever man picks up the hymnal that includes the piece of paper marked with a black spot is the preacher for the next year. Some Protestants find the language of “God’s plan” helpful, while others find Job’s baffled silence a more truthful way to think about our inability to know the will of God.
