

LEBCO-PASR Presents:

“Gettysburg: Civilian Life During and After the Battle!”

Thursday, April 11, 2024

Join us for a day learning about civilian life during and after the battle that took place in the tiny crossroads town of Gettysburg, PA, in 1863.

Appropriate rest / comfort stops will be made as we journey to Gettysburg.

First, we visit Gettysburg’s newest historical attraction, “Gettysburg Beyond the Battle,” featuring thousands of rare artifacts while using state of the art technology.

Next, we visit the Jennie Wade House where you will learn about Jennie’s tragic death and her family struggle for survival during the 3-days of the battle.

Then onward to enjoy a deli-style lunch at the Historic Dobbin House, one of Gettysburg oldest homes and a local treasured landmark in Gettysburg.

Next, guides in period attire will take you through the historic Shriver House, where you will hear about the Shriver family’s life and how things changed when the war came to their hometown.

Last, we visit Mr. Ed’s Elephant Museum and Candy Emporium. Explore this unique roadside attraction with over 12,000 elephants of every shape and size and sweet treats for purchase that are sure to delight!

We will make a fast-food dinner-on-own stop on the way back home.
