

Conserv Enters California with Acquisition

Effective December 6, 2021 Conserv has announced it has entered the State of California with the acquisition of Alpha Wildlife Removal, LLC of San Diego.

Founded in 2018 by Kyle Ransom, Alpha provides wildlife removal, exclusion, and other related services throughout San Diego and Orange County. When making the decision to sell his business, Ransom mentioned; “the opportunity that Conserv has provided for me and my team has surpassed our greatest expectations. It feels great to know they will continue to take care of our customers and the Alpha team”. Ransom will remain on as an advisor while Spencer Ferguson has been promoted to General Manager.

Kyle Waltz, CEO says; “Kyle Ransom has built a very high quality business with a great reputation. We look forward to working with him and Spencer as we begin to execute on a long term plan to expand the business and it’s service offerings throughout Southern California”.

This transaction marks Conserv’s fourth acquisition this year.

About Conserv

Founded in 2014, Conserv is building a nationally recognized pest and wildlife control business. Conserv grows through partnerships, acquisitions, and organically. Conserv creates opportunities for pest and wildlife control business owners who are ready to exit the daily operations of the business and have the option to earn passive income by utilizing an equity rollover reinvestment.
