The holiday season has arrived! Cats, bats, hats, turkeys, colorful trees. Autumn signals the beginning of the busiest time of the year. Personally, it's time for wedding anniversaries and birthdays. Lots of celebrations and festivities for everyone! Hope you enjoy all that comes your way.

The September meetings via Zoom were packed with inspiration. Emily Taylor and Timna Tarr shared their quilting histories and had such beautiful pieces to share with us. I hope you enjoyed them both. Our Mystery Quilt workshop, led by Linda Stokes, was full...of information and participants. Nineteen of us were busy making the early steps for our quilt project. We will finish (or almost) at the October workshop, including the quilting!

You won't want to miss the In-Person & Zoom October evening meeting as we honor several veterans with Quilts of Valor. QOV is truly an amazing organization to show our vets how much we appreciate their service. They should know that we never forget that freedom isn't free. The Friday morning meeting, In-Person & Zoom, has Ann Moore scheduled with her topic, "I Do It Myself". She will share her skills of quilting using free-motion, rulers, and templates. Should be fun!

Autumn also means lots of volunteer opportunities for QGGH:

Nominating Committee – we need 5, 1 being a board member (who is not being re-elected).

Frontier Days at George Ranch -- October 20 & 21, in Richmond area.

International Quilt Festival:

Learn to Quilt Booth – Wed. – Sun., Nov. 1-5, Sign up on website

Opportunity Quilt ticket sales – 1 or 2 days, TBA (This is new from Festival!)

Quilt Angels – 20 (or 40) hours of volunteering over Thursday, Friday, & Saturday

A quick word about Nominating Committee – if you serve on the committee, you cannot be elected. Several of the officers are seeking re-election and we already have some officer volunteers. We do have one new office to fill – president -elect. Annual transitioning should be easier with this addition. This is a very important committee. Please consider serving OR consider volunteering for an office. You would be able to give direct input on guild decisions. Lastly, the offices really don't take a lot of time.

The 2025 Joy of Quilts show is reserved at Stafford Centre for January 17-18, 2025. Janice Schindeler is our show chair! The show is over a year away but entries will be due in November. Our 2023 show was phenomenal!

Volunteer Opportunities—Help Wanted

Throughout the year we have the opportunity to share our love of quilting with others in the community, highlight our talents and grow the number of people who appreciate our art. This section is dedicated to ensuring that you have the opportunity to use your talents and skills and provides an “at a glance” for convenience.

Quilters Needed for Comforters

If anyone is interested in quilting, Janet Becker needs quilters. We are a bit behind, having lots of tops with batting and backing ready for quilting. It's a great way to practice your free motion quilting as well! Contact Janet Becker (comforters@qgghouston.org) if you would like to help. If you will be at upcoming meetings, Janet will be glad to bring you a bundle.

Learn to Quilt Booth

October 15 is the deadline to sign up to volunteer at our Learn to Quilt booth at the International Quilt Festival, November 2nd—5th. Click here Festival Volunteers: Learn to Quilt Booth \(signupgenius.com\) to sign up or contact Veronica Rutenberg (learntoquiltbooth@qgghouston.org) if you have questions.

Frontier Days at the George Ranch

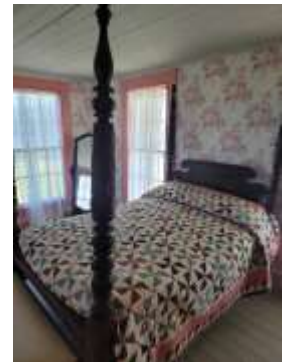

Friday October 20 9 a.m. - 2 p.m.

Saturday October 21 9 a.m. - 5p.m.

Frontier Days Festival celebrates 150 years of Texas history. Hands on activities, battle re-enactments, live entertainment, first person costumed interpreters, historic home tours, games, cowboys and more.

QGGH volunteers will be located at the 1860 house to showcase the beautiful quilt made by our members and on display. Volunteers will share the love and history of quilting with attendees. Our beautiful opportunity quilt will be on display and raffle tickets sold. Additional QGGH quilts will also be displayed in the 1860 house. Friday is school children and their chaperones. Saturday is open to the public.

Volunteers are needed on Friday October 20 from 9-2 and Saturday October 21 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Each volunteer will be provided with an apron with QGGH logo. Those who volunteer for a full day on Saturday will be provided lunch. Contact Shirley Hunter (communityservice@qgghouston.org)

Opportunity Quilt

Our QGGH Opportunity Quilt will be on display at the International Quilt Festival! We are looking for volunteers to take a shift selling tickets on either Thursday, Nov. 2 or Saturday, Nov. 4. We are also in need of volunteers to help take the quilt to shows/other guild meetings throughout the year. Please let me know if you have interest and ability to help in this way. There will be postcards available with the raffle tickets. Contact Audrey Lynn (opportunityquilt@qgghouston.org).

Let's Try Something New!

This year is flying by! Now that we're in October (already!), it's time to start planning the assembly of your sampler of experimental techniques. I'm one of those "last-minute, down to the deadline" types so maybe I'll try something new and work on it earlier than the night before! What a concept!

Add more experiments if you still have additional ideas to try!! Go for it! Enjoy the journey!

This no-deadlines challenge does have one ...Goal-line: Show & Tell at the Holiday Party in December. I cannot wait to see what everyone discovered or played with during 2023!

Have fun!

XO Sharon

President's Blocks

Sharon's request is for butterfly blocks. The butterflies can be any shape, size, color, style, and you can even use metallics if you want. You can also use any method: applique, embroidery, broderie perse, pieced, etc. The blocks should finish at 3" or 6" (yours should be 3.5" or 6.5").

Sharon's goal is for you to have fun making the butterfly and maybe try something new!

The background should be a pastel solid or texture. She would like you to sign your name along the edge of wing but not on the butterfly unless it fills the entire block.

Please return to Karen Benson or Linda Stokes. We will give the blocks to Sharon at the December meeting.

Programs and Meetings

*Karen Benson
Alice Clark*

Friday Meeting, October 20th, 10 am

Ann Moore— “I Do It Myself!”

Location: ZOOM and In-Person

Ann’s first words proved prophetic when she decided to learn how to quilt her quilts rather than having another do it for her. She quilts on a domestic machine, both free motion and using Westalee templates and rulers. She will show her quilts, speak of her techniques, and have Westalee products for sale.

Friday meeting, November 17th, 10 am

Allie McCathren “Fabric Painting with Scraps”

Location: ZOOM and In-Person

Allie is an artist with a background in marine biology. It can be difficult to figure out how to use scraps efficiently, especially if they don’t seem to “work” together. Allie will guide us through her process of organization and usage of scraps and show us some of her scrappy creations.

Tuesday meeting, November 21st, 7 pm

Teresa Duryea Wong —

“Sewing and Survival: Native American Quilts from 1880-2022”

Location: ZOOM and In-Person

Learn how the transference from sewing buffalo hides and other natural materials to quilting took place and see the beautiful quilts made during this period.

The quality of the quilts and the wide variety of styles made it an outstanding show. We would love to see entries from every single person and a filled Youth category! Please consider your options and ignite your creative imaginations! Time to get started!!

Results for the survey about our morning meeting day are in. Sixty-nine members voted: 75% voted to keep our meetings on Friday mornings. The survey was for information, to gauge what the preference of the membership was. Thank you for participating.

Lots of news in this Patch Dispatch! Make sure to check out every page.

Enjoy the beautiful October days,

Sharon Kralj

Sharon's Tip of the Month—

Feathering your nest is a bundle of fun! Painting, decorating, making it your own. Whether you own or rent, large or small, now is a good time to do a maintenance check inside and out:

Windows, doors, inside and outside plumbing, under sinks and behind washer & dishwasher, any place you have water. Weatherstripping, HVAC system check and change filters, roof, gutters. Look at your fences, foundation, vegetation for insects and any damage. Inspect ceilings and around windows for any discoloration. Get your insulated faucet covers and pipe insulation now.

Don't forget to check the batteries in smoke alarms!

Joy of Quilts Janice Schindeler
joyofquilts@qgghouston.org

It's a go! Planning for our guild's Joy of Quilts 2025 show has begun. I'll be coordinating the event and already a few wonderful guild members have stepped up and offered to help. Lois Cleveland and Karen Benson will be organizing the judging and creating the categories, a real glutton for punishment Lois also offered to run the show website!! Debi Mishael will repeat as the vendor queen and Mary Van Speybroeck volunteered to organize the online auction! But never fear, there is plenty of work to go around – lots of critical positions to be filled.

Interested in volunteering? Give it some thought - I should have a list of positions in the November newsletter. Also in the November newsletter will be the list of categories and descriptions of the categories. (A sneak peek is below!). Quilting Bees please consider making a masterpiece quilt for the online auction!

I know it is over a year away but I am anxious to get things rolling!! Hope y'all are too!!

Oh! almost forgot – the dates of the 2025 fantastic show will be set up day January 16: Show dates: January 17 and 18.

Meanwhile, happy stitching and much Joy!

The Mystery Continues.....

A great time was had by 19 intrepid guild members who love mysteries. The day flew by as we worked on the first part of our mystery quilt. Making 28 Flying Geese is the first part of the mystery, the rest will be revealed next month. Here's what one member's Flying Geese look like.

The November 15 workshop is a free, open sewing date. A good time to finish up a project you started at Quilt Festival perhaps, or work on last minute holiday gifts with no interruption. The workshop is free, but you must sign up on the website so that an accurate headcount can be sent to Trini Mendenhall.

In other Workshop News, anonymous donors have donated funds to pay for 2 members to take a free workshop ($40 value) of their choice. They will be special door prizes at the Holiday Party on December 12. How can you be one of the 2 members? Easy. Send an e-mail to Linda Stokes at workshops@qgghouston.org saying you would like to enter for the workshop door prize. Only e-mail entries will be accepted and I must receive the e-mail by noon on December 12. All entries will be acknowledged, so you know I got it. One entry per member. Workshop listings for next year are being finalized, so you should be able to see what is coming in 2024.

Retreats

Charlotte Betts
retreats@qgghouston.org

The guild recently held our Fall Retreat at Camp Lone Star in La Grange. Thirty-five members attended the weekend retreat. There were two newbies welcomed to the retreat. Plenty of laughter, sharing of ideas, and shopping were taking place. We were not able to swim as we were blessed with rain, lightning, and thunder. Our favorite chef, Matilda, is back full time with the camp. Our meals were all wonderful and delicious. We were all excited to hear that she is living on the campus and is a full time employee now. Our hostess for the weekend, Hailey Angst, gave us a tour of the new dining hall which is beautiful and a nice addition to the camp. We will continue to have our meals delivered to us in the Johnson Retreat Center.

Anita Byars

Bret Adams

Rhonda Onwere

Tedi Armet and Charlotte Betts taught the class, Got Scraps! Ideas for Scrappy Quilts and Using Your Left Over Scraps. There were a number of quilts shown that were made from left over scraps. Patterns and ideas were also shared. Hopefully, we will be seeing scrap quilts in our Show and Tell soon.....as well as quilts that were made at the retreat.

Retreats

retreats@qgghouston.org

Our next retreat is scheduled for Super Bowl Weekend, February 8-11, 2024. Registration will begin November 1st. The cost will be $240 for 3 nights, and $215 for 2 nights. Non-members will be $275 for 3 nights, and $250 for 2 nights. Membership dues will be collected beginning in December. The quilt stores in Giddings will be having their Super Bowl Sales that weekend.

Thank you to the retreat committee for all their help. They help set up and take down at the retreat. We hope that you will plan to sign up for future retreats. It is a great way to meet our members.

The website is up to date with the 2023 Speakers and Workshops, and the October Meetings are on there too!

If you aren't receiving the notifications for the newsletter, please check with Membership to make sure you have paid your dues.

Continuing with "learning the website"; we will continue with the "All About Our Guild" and "QGGH Store" pages.

If you are on a computer, there will be "tabs" across the top of the homepage. (Actually, any page you may be on will have the "tab banner".) Click on the All About Our Guild tab.

This is a description of who and what we are, as well as, a brief history of our guild. Below it is a list of our past presidents starting in 1977!

On my computer screen, the "tabs" have run out of space after "All About Our Guild". What's next "More". On some screens, it may be 3 dots. Under the More tab there are several more pages! Next up is the QGGH Store.

It has all the things you may pay for online...Membership, Workshops, Retreats, and Advertising.

I hope you are finding the website a useful tool to navigate all our guild has to offer!

This month, I delivered Comforter quilts to Halo House, Michael DeBakey VA Medical Center, and Ronald McDonald House. Volunteers at each of the facilities were so excited to receive our quilts and said the residents love receiving these “beautiful” quilts. At each location, the volunteers asked me to be sure to tell the guild members how much these quilts mean to their clients. At Halo House, a resident’s wife was sitting in the reception area. She jumped up when I came in the door with the quilts. She told me that her husband had received a quilt when they checked into Halo House and he absolutely loved it and had it with him all the time. She, also, told me be sure to thank everyone in the guild for his quilt, that this is such a wonderful thing that we do.

We are a little behind in our count this year. I appreciate whatever you can do for Comforters, but I especially need quilters. We want to continue to provide these greatly appreciated quilts. Let me know if you can take a bundle of quilts home to quilt!

Potato Chips Quilt

This quilt was made with scraps from several Tula Pink fabric lines and some black and white. The blocks are 12 inches finished, made with "chips" that are 2" by 3 1/2". The quilt size is 60" by 72 inches and was quilted on the hoop using an Amelie Scott embroidery design. I am donating it to Comforters.

Bakers Dozen Quilt

This quilt was made using a pattern by Jean Kingwell by the same name. I am tempted to call mine "Humble Pie-Bakers Dozen" because it was very humbling to unsew and sew the blocks again and again. The quilt finished at 73" by 73" and was quilted using an Amelie Scott embroidery design.

Susan Boyd

Two quilts for comforters. I made them using the Hanukkah fabrics that were on a giveaway table.

TEXAS QUILT MUSEUM

History in the Making™

MUSEUM HOURS: Thursday-Saturday • 10 am-4 pm
 140 W Colorado Street, La Grange, Texas 78945 • 979.968.3104 • texasquiltmuseum.org

Two groundbreaking exhibits of quilts will be on display at the Texas Quilt Museum from August 31-December 23, 2023.

First, we'll pay tribute to the wildly popular series of books by James Herriot as well as the recent smash PBS series with the animal-themed juried show "All Creatures Great and Small." James Herriot was the pen name for the real-life British country veterinary surgeon James Wight (1916-1995). He wrote a series of best-selling books about his experiences in the field, as well as short stories for adults and children. They've been adapted into several TV shows and films, including the most recent All Creature Great and Small series that began in 2020 and runs on PBS in the United States.

Red Panda (34" x 44") by Laurie Mutalpassi

The Museum put out a call for quilts inspired by the theme in this juried show, with 59 works chosen. "These quilts run the gamut of animals portrayed and loved," says Vicki Mangum, Museum Curator. "You will enjoy the many cats and dogs, as well the infamous Texas Horny Toad Lizard. Look for swans, butterflies, and even a mouse. There are also quilts on endangered species that will raise your awareness to their plight."

Isn't Playing Better Than Quilting? (33" x 32") by Susan P. Stevenson

Antique Quilts from the Koval Collection

Mary and Joe Koval are longtime quilt collectors, dealers, and experts. The Museum is also fortunate to house the permanent Koval Antique Textile Collection.

Alphabet Quilt (72" x 76") c. 1870, artist unknown

Now comes this showcase of 15 works which include some of their best antique quilts gathered over the decades. They were chosen by the Kovals themselves.

"When viewing these quilts, I am reminded of what attracted me to quilts in the first place—the sheer beauty of workmanship and fabric selections," Museum Curator Vicki Mangum offers.

"The two go hand-in-hand with this antique collection. Museum visitors will definitely enjoy seeing what Mary and Joe Koval have kept in their private collection after years of selling antique quilts!"
