KEE Job Search Tracking Sheet TIP: Organize your search in advance, target specific parts of city each day & watch for help wanted signs!
Ensure you are applying exactly as instructed in the job posting. Keep a copy of job posting with this sheet and increase chances of getting an interview by: - Researching the company, know what position they are looking for and why you're the right person for the job. In your mind, visualize yourself working in that job.
- If it is ok with that employer, it is best to apply in person . Ask for an application, fill it out completely , do not just leave a resume (unless that is their request).
- Be friendly and ask if it's possible to speak to the person who does the hiring for that position, when they come out, do your "elevator pitch" to introduce yourself & tell them why you're a great fit for this job. If they're not available, ask when they will be & go back. Expect to succeed you may even get an interview on the spot!
- If it was possible to briefly introduce yourself to the person hiring for that position (usually is, but it's ok if it's not), get closure & ask when they are doing interviews.
- Get business card, if you forgot: look up info online. Ensure to fill this tracking form after you leave the business to have important these follow-up details available.
Following-up demonstrates to employers that you genuinely want to work for them! Ensure you are patient, presenting your best self and are friendly to everyone you encounter.
