

Goat Safe Treats

* Always treat in moderation!

* We recommend consulting a vet about any dietary requirements and safe treats for a goat!

Note: A goat will eat, on average, 2% of their bodyweight per day.

Example: 30 lb goat eats around ½ lb per day (8 ounces)

Fruit and Vegetables:

Not safe:

Tomatoes/Eggplants (Nightshades)

Garlic/Onions (Alliums)

Citrus Fruits

Safe in Moderation: CUT UP INTO SMALLER PIECES SO THEY DON'T CHOKE!!!

Apples

Bananas

Strawberries

Carrots

Watermelon

Grapes

Bananas * They like the peel too!

Pears

Lettuce

Celery

Squash

Pumpkins

Crackers, Cereal, Cookies, Fortified Treats:

Safe in moderation:

Animal Crackers

Fig Newtons

Pretzels

Fruit Loops

Goat Granola Block

Leaves/Limbs:

Crunchy Leaves

*NOT FRUIT TREE LEAVES

Small tree limbs

Bark

Shrubs

Pine trees * A Natural dewormer

NOT SAFE:

Christmas trees treated with chemicals

* When in doubt toss it out!!!

Domesticated plants, shrubs, flowers, trees

No pitted fruit, leaves or bark

* Cherry, apricot, peach, plum, avocado

Grass clippings or moldy hay