

May 2023 Documents & Communications Update

We have not met; however, we will soon be getting together to review and evaluate our products and processes, so that we can be even more efficient and effective in the future. We have produced another Newsletter, created a new office form template, updated the office forms with that template, worked with the Architectural Committee on possible Architectural Spec modifications, and continued to enhance the web site.