Next was our New President Jay Robert Mayden. Jay with his wife Carrie and Board of Director Deborah Deaton attended a meeting on September 14 from 12 to 1 at the Crown Point Library where the Crown Point Community School Corporation had a meet and greet. They met the Superintendent Dr Todd Terrill and the Director of Commutation Brooke Allen. Many things were discuss. There was discussion about Membership to the CPHS Alumni Assoc. First 4 years free. They want to be partners with us to help us really get things going our way. We will be meeting with all of them next month on October 26th at the Administration Service Center at 200 E North St., Crown Point.

Past Presidents Report: Terry Lee : Terry reported on the raffle expenses with all the supplies necessary for the banquet invites, raffle tickets, envelopes, stamps and paper plus the overall expenses on birthday greetings, memory cards and sending out new lifetime members greetings. He needed an approval on these expenses. Jay Mayden made a motion on this and Deborah Deaton 2nd it. Everyone present signified by stating “Aye” and passed.

Banquet committee: Carrie Mayden, Deborah Deaton, Diane DePaoli. Carrie got a hold of the owner of Croation Center. We are on his books for next year’s banquet. April 15, 2023. We discuss that we need a contract with the owner and to have it in the contract that if we have 200 people coming and everyone does not show that we get the reminding food anyways.

New Business: nothing
