

What Must We/I Do in 2022? Evangelism

I. What is Evangelism?

Evangelize is just a combination of two Greek roots: Eu, meaning _____ and angelizo, meaning _____. Evangelism is presenting Jesus Christ in the power of the Holy Spirit to sinful people so they can put their trust in God through Him. (Mark Dever). More simply, evangelism is _____ the gospel.

II. Who Should Evangelize?

It's the _____ job. That's correct but _____. The truth is it's _____ job. Evangelism can have everyone running in _____. However, we ought to fear being _____ to _____ rather than _____ what people might think. Matt 28, II Tim 4:5, Acts 11:19-21, I Peter 3:15-16.

To _____ Christ in our hearts means to set Him apart from all other persons or allegiances, removing all doubts, avowing Him as LORD. Believers, as well, are to be ready to _____ themselves. We must be ready to give a defense for the _____ that is in us. The word "defend" is where we get our word apology from.

III. How Should We Evangelize?

There are three truths we should consider when giving a witness to someone. We should have _____, being accurate in what we say. There are some truths people won't like. The subjects of sin, guilt, repentance, holiness occur throughout the Bible. We have to be honest about them. Secondly, we need an _____. There's no promise for tomorrow for anyone. Lastly, is our Christianity contagious, is it joyful? The gospel isn't acceptable news. It's _____ news and it should be great joy to those who believe.

Strategic Points in Understanding our Witness:

Make sure to _____. Remember Jesus said that _____ can come to me unless the Father draws them. This is the beginning point of the gospel, praying to the Father. A second point is to use the _____. Thirdly, we must be _____ as we witness to others, requiring us to know what we know, well. What we share should provoke a person to _____. Lastly, use the _____.

IV. Why Should We Evangelize?

First and foremost, we should do this to be _____.

Secondly, we should do this because we _____.

Lastly, we evangelize because our goal as fully devoted followers is to see God _____.
