

Evangelism: Is it Required?

John 1:35-42

There are many ways to share the gospel. Some take a very direct, confrontational approach. Others take a _____ approach. There's also _____ evangelism. Which one is correct?

I. Biblical Announcement

We've been seeing this approach with JTB. He understood who Messiah was historically and pointed Him out to others. He referred to Jesus as the _____ . Someone using this approach could use the _____ statements of Jesus as well. Another way to share your faith using this biblical announcement approach is the _____ Road. 3:23, 6:23, 5:8, 10:9, 13.

II. Personal Statement

The personal statement approach is demonstrated by _____. Did you know the three times he is mentioned in John's gospel, each time it's referring to him _____? The vast majority of people come to faith in Christ as a result of _____.

III. Personal Encouragement

What are you seeking? A very easy way to encourage someone regarding the gospel is to have them _____. J M Boice has suggested 8 things if our witness is to be credible:

- Assurance
- Know you're _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- Planted to bear _____
- Willing to _____
- Everything must be characterized by _____

Emory Church Byhalia desperately needs _____
Our aim must not be to _____,
to present some philosophical argument. It must be to _____
