

I Timothy 6:11-16

Man of God, pt. 2

Remember the commands from last week? Paul commanded his son in the faith, Timothy, to

I. A Man is Known by What He Flees

II. A Man is Known by What He Follows

III. A Man is Known by What He Fights

IV. A Man is Known by What He Confesses

Paul continues his exhortation to Timothy by reminding him of a few other things. He commands him to TAKE HOLD of his eternal life. What does this mean? For one thing, he commanded him to live each day as _____ depended upon it. We are to live in the light of eternity.

Jim Eliot, the martyred missionary to the Auca Indians, famously wrote: "He is no fool, who gives what he cannot lose, to gain what he cannot keep."

Maybe you didn't verbally confess anything last week but your life did. What was that?

V. A Man is Known by What He is Faithful To Faithfulness....in what arena? All of them. We are reminded that we live in the presence of witnesses, in the presence of God each moment. We're called to be faithful in our homes, in our jobs, in our friendships, in our churches.

We are called to KEEP, to GUARD, PROTECT, PRESERVE the commission God has given us. For how long? Until He comes.

Who has called us to flee, who has called us to follow, who has called us to fight, to confess and to be faithful?
