

DONATION POLICY

The D.A. Hurd Library accepts donations of gently used books, recorded books on CD, music CDs, and DVDs. Donations should be clean and in good condition. We do not accept donations of old news magazines, textbooks, encyclopedias, or Reader's Digest Condensed Books.

All donations are accepted without condition, and immediately become the property of the library. They cannot be returned. Some donations will be added to the collection. The same criteria for inclusion in the library's collection apply to gifts as to materials purchased by the library. The rest will be sold at one of our used book sales. Donations added to the collection may be subsequently withdrawn when they are worn or when their content is no longer current.

The library accepts donations during all operating hours unless otherwise posted. Please do not bring more items than you can carry into the library.

If you need a receipt for tax purposes, the library will provide one. We cannot, however, assign a dollar value to your donation.
