Over the course of their time with TMP, learners will explore and develop the three disciplines required for a job within the professional musical theatre world, which are acting skills, vocal skills and movement skills. Learners will also develop their audition techniques to equip them with the necessary skills needed to progress onto University or Drama School.

Learners will have the opportunity to perform at The Old Courts Theatre to invited audiences throughout each academic year. They will also work with live musicians when taking part in public performances, as this will help them improve their musicality and communication skills.

EHCP LEARNING SUPPORT

At TMP College we pride ourselves on our diverse range of teaching and learning delivery methods and strategies. We understand that not everyone will learn in the same way, at the same pace or in the same environments.

Therefore we priorities everyone's learning needs at the initial stages of meeting new learners and parents to develop an atmosphere within classrooms that meet these needs.

We work with many different local authorities within the North West of England to ensure there is sufficient learning support in place for anyone with an Education Health Care Plan. We also will assist in organizing transportation, travel training, chaperoning and other care needs alongside a learner's creative education.

TMP College hosts optionally PFA (preparation for adulthood) sessions at the end of each week to develop independent skills for learners who identify areas within their skillsets that need improvement. These can include sessions such as textiles, healthy living, DIY, self-defense, understanding budgets, developing social skills and more.

We are very proud of our learner's journeys and constant progress shown with a big thanks to our pastoral and wellbeing team. TMP is Matrix Accredited in providing professional information, advice and guidance.

LEARNING SUPPORT

At TMP we're proud to have an extensive department of learning support tutors that are trained in supporting young people as well as having creative skills and backgrounds to provide technical support as well as emotional and wellbeing. Our support team are TMPs biggest assets in meeting the needs of all learners and guiding them to a successful and positive experience whilst at TMP.

We understand how overwhelming it can be starting a new college with new people and information so we make sure that each learner has a smooth transition to us by working with learners, parents and local authorities across the North West of England. We do this by offering taster days, open evenings and informal meetings to walk around college, chat to tutors and support staff so that new learners are able to decide if TMP is right for them. Following this, we can then begin to prepare support needs such as transportation, travel training, getting to know and understand each learner, take part in workshops and taster days to meet a handful of the new class at a time over the summer holidays etc. Our pastoral and wellbeing team work with learners throughout the year to ensure they have all the support they require each step of the way. We also have learner counselling available and intervention team should any learners have any issues arise or barriers that they need need help and support with.

TMP holds accreditation from Matrix in providing professional information, advice and guidance.

WORK EXPERIENCE & SUPPORTED INTERNSHIPS

TMP offers everyone work experience as part of their course. You will work with your tutors from the outset to outline your career goals and set targets. Once you have developed a good idea of what careers you'd like to pursue, your tutor will work closely with you in applying for local work experience opportunities. After completing your course, you may want to explore the opportunities in supported internships. TMP has supported a number of learners in to these roles in which they complete a work based internship whilst still studying at TMP for one day of the week. TMP believes so much in the importance of work experience and work ethic that we have employed many of our own previous learners to become support tutors and tutors having witnessed how much they have excelled whilst studying with us.
