Madam President's Letter:

Happy February friends! Spring is just around the corner; I'm convinced in my heart. And speaking of hearts, the Sweetheart Ball will be here soon. This will be an amazing time, so be sure to buy your tickets at the pull tab counter now. I want to thank our amazing volunteers for everything they do to help keep this Lodge going. Help is always appreciated, so if you haven't yet, please consider volunteering, even a few hours a month makes a difference. Let's all do everything we can to come together and be positive. I look forward to seeing you.

Fraternally yours, Valorie Gaulke, Madam President

MEMBER COMPLAINT

Some members are complaining about the service. Mandated by Mike Simmonds all bar service, banquet service and other areas are to be volunteers only or he will close us. A lot of us volunteers have stepped up to do this but we are learning or get thrown in to places we are just starting to learn. Please be patient and step up and learn like the rest of us.

On Friday January 27th the volunteers worked as a team. Aimee and Pam on the floor, Jeanie helping with the bar dishes, Dean & Tracy getting food served, John & Bear doing the kitchen, Kelly and Russ running the bar. Working as a team we can keep our club open.
