

Bed Covers: {all prices may vary between trucks; prices have been going up}

- Pro-Tek does not keep bedcovers in stock because there are so many different types and styles. If the company, we order them from has them in stock we can get it on Tuesdays and Thursdays.
- Information we need to order a bedcover: year, make, and model of the truck; exact bed length (measure from inside of bed, front to back); if there is anything in the truck like a ram box; we sometimes get asked if the tailgate is multifunctional.
- Not all bed covers are fully leak proof, some water may still get in.

*our display is a different name brand that we do not use anymore, but it is similar in style.

{this brand does not have a lock and a key; the bedcover is locked when the tailgate is locked}
