If you cannot afford to pay court fees and service fees, you may be able to have these fees and costs waived.

FILING FEES. Under the Sac and Fox Tribe of the Mississippi in Iowa Tribal Court Rules, where a natural person shows the Court that he or she is indigent, and the party requests a waiver of a filing fee, the Court shall waive the fee. The Court shall have discretion to condition such waiver upon the performance of up to five hours of community service for the Sac and Fox Tribe of the Mississippi in Iowa.

SERVICE FEES. Under the Sac and Fox Tribe of the Mississippi in Iowa Tribal Court Rules, where a natural person shows the Court that he or she is indigent and that the Court Rules require him or her to serve process on another party and the party requests that the Court appoint the Tribal Police to serve the process, the Court shall order such service at no cost. The Court may condition such waiver on the performance of up to two hours of community service to the Tribe.

The Court Rules state that the Court can waive these filing or service fees if you are “indigent” by showing three elements:
