

The Clarendon Courier

Vol. X, Issue 19

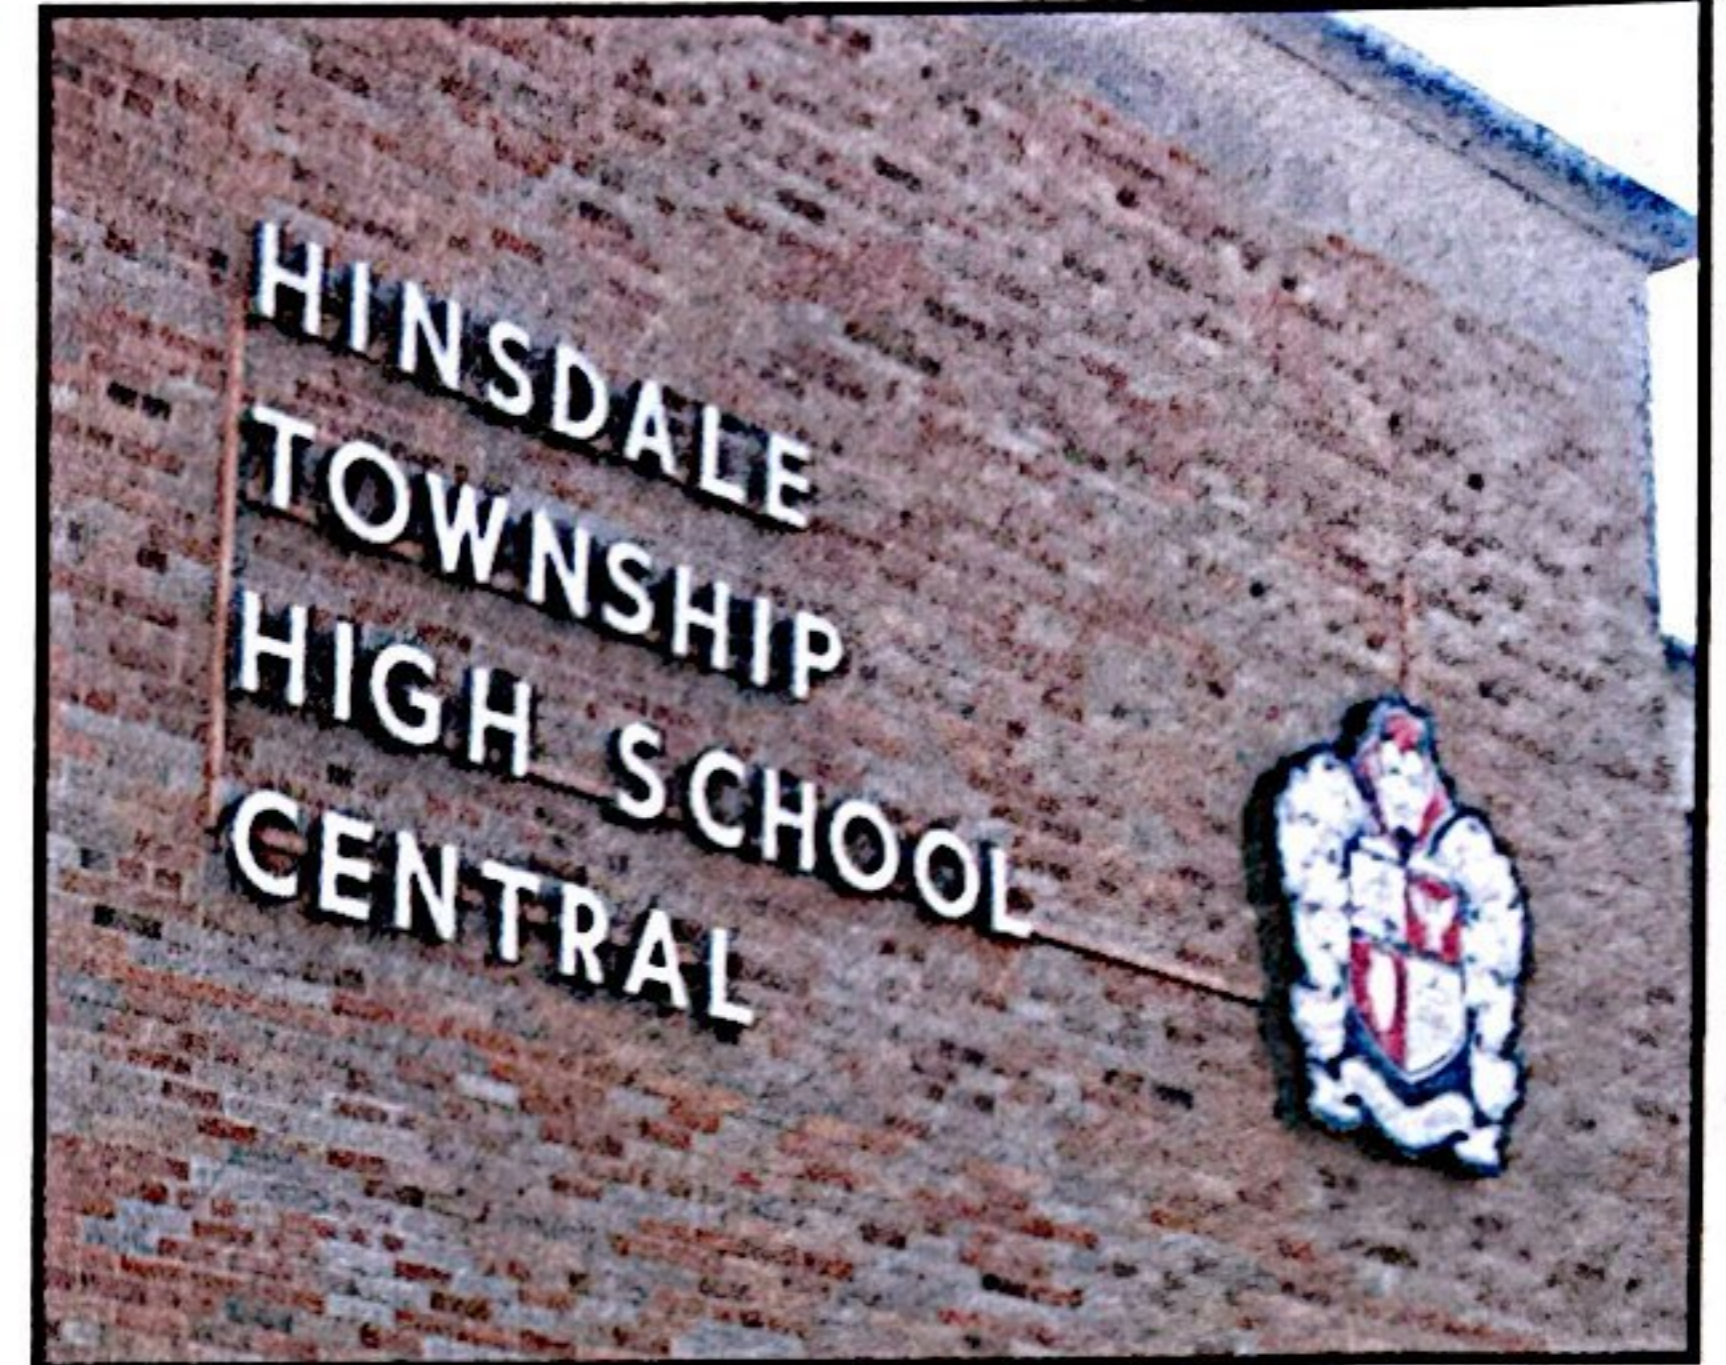

Thursday, November 2, 2023

$1 on newsstands

'Roaring Twenties'

Clarendon Hills Infant Welfare unveils 2024 benefit theme, location at Pinstripes (p. 8)

Another Resignation

Second District 86 board member resigns within 2-month span (pp. 2, 6)

Regional Winners

Hinsdale Central boys soccer rallies to capture IHSA class 3A regional title (p. 14)

COMMUNITY

CHIW embraces the 'Roaring Twenties'

Mike Ellis

OAK BROOK—The Clarendon Hills chapter of the Infant Welfare Society of Chicago auxiliary (CHIW) unveiled its annual benefit theme at Pinstripes on Oct. 16.

The chapter held a meeting upstairs, before benefit chairs Jen Alsman and Amy Lizzadro disclosed the theme for the 2024 benefit, which will be held at The Westin in Lombard on Feb. 3.

The benefit—the chapter's largest annual fundraiser—will adopt a "Roaring Twenties" theme.

The 2023 CHIW benefit, led by Jessica Christensen and Danielle McNally, was the most prosperous in chapter history, fueling a banner year for CHIW that culminated in a record $250,000 raised.

Proceeds from the event will support Infant Welfare's Angel Harvey Family Health Center in the Logan Square neighborhood of Chicago.

For more information about Clarendon Hills Infant Welfare, visit www.clarendonhillsinfantwelfare.org.

PHOTOS COURTESY OF KELLY YATES

Clarendon Hills Infant Welfare benefit chairs Amy Lizzadro and Jen Alsman, left, announced the theme and location for the chapter's annual benefit on Oct. 16.