

Long Life Prayer to the Secret Yogi,
Wielder of Mantric Power,
Action Wisdom Victory Vajra

Om Svasti!

Secretly, you are the iron bridge building mad man
But in this life you are more like the King of the Vast Open Road
Mind's iron horse a motorcycle!

Vajra in the right hand, phurba in the left
Ornaments on every vital point
You teach how to integrate for the benefit of all

Fire in the belly, your mantras roar and your breath blesses without distance
Without distinguishing dirty and clean, your surroundings always a pristine crystal castle
And you yourself a castle for the dakas and dakinis, pristine cognition - never separate!

Energetic action, may your compassionate presence ever remain!
Whatever's arising is liberating
So may we always remember it's so simple it's embarrassing
And remember this precious freedom to know the jewel-like Guru

Inseparable from all the sources of refuge,
May you continue to live long by their blessings
From the ocean-like, inconceivable storehouse of sublime merit of all the Buddhas and Bodhisattvas
Accomplish whatever activity necessary
Regardless of auspicious gateways and circumstances!
May all obstacles shatter like the fabricated mind!

Live long! Live long! Live long!
