MARCH 2021

Our Koeze Nut Fundraiser has been our primary source of income every year. This year's drive was no exception, and with the overhanging problems posed by the Covid 19 pandemic, we were unsure of our results. Travel restrictions, social distancing, people working from home, face mask restrictions, all posed contact limitations. But, our Head Nut, George Kacic, plowed right into these obstacles. And with the help of many members, and several of our customers increasing their orders, this years nut sales actually set a record. When the final report was made at our last meeting, George received the highest honor our club gives: a one clap salute for a job well done. All in all, thank you to all members of our club who worked along with us, our many corporate backers, and just everyone who helped us!! God Bless!!
