

Maximizing ERC Funding for Small Businesses

When you're dealing with complex financial and tax information, where you turn for help is critically important. At Linqqqs, our goal is to help you get the maximum Employee Retention Credit (ERC) credit available to you. With new IRS guidelines and changing rules for employers, tackling this monumental task is no place for a novice. You need to complete the process quickly, easily and legally, and to do that, you need the right advice.

Why Linqqqs?

At Linqqqs, we have the right tax professionals to help you decrease your tax liability and get the most tax benefits available to you. You can rest easy knowing that our experts will find every benefit that you are entitled to, while also staying on the right side of the IRS guidelines. With 40-plus years in the tax business, we've learned a thing or two. And we put that knowledge to work for you.

Our experience spans the financial gamut. Members of our team provide accounting and auditing services for agencies such as the FBI, FDA, SEC, U.S. Customs, U.S. Postmaster General, U.S. and State Attorney General and Washington State Public Disclosure Commission.

In addition, we have audited and reconstructed financial records for the prosecution involving municipalities, partnerships, and corporations involved in criminal investigations.

Simply put, we have the tax expertise you need to get the most tax credits from ERC.

Mary Slawson

ERC Tax Expert

43+ years forensic accountant

Enrolled Agent (EA) IRS

12+ years tax planning & preparation

Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE)

MBA (Emphasis Accounting & Taxation)

Expert witness

Geri Bohn

ERC Payroll Tax Expert

Certified Payroll Professional

American Payroll Association (APA)

20+ years of experience as a payroll processor

Board member of the Utah APA Chapter

More than 43 years of forensic accounting experience

Our Team of Tax Professionals

With more than 43 years of forensic accounting experience, the tax professionals that review each of our ERC cases are Enrolled Agents with the IRS and Certified Fraud Examiners. They have conducted business, nonprofit and individual tax planning for decades. They have also served as expert legal witnesses during criminal trials.

Learn more:

---