

Verses to Read: 2 Kings 6:1-6

The borrowed ax that had been broken would have been very expensive because it was made of iron. Elisha's panicked disciple had enough sense to cry out to him for help. God worked a miracle through this Great Prophet, allowing the ax head to be retrieved and the ax to be returned to its owner intact.

How would you have reacted if you had been the man who broke the borrowed ax? Who should we cry out to when we find ourselves in a difficult situation that we can't fix? Share your thoughts below.
