"I have been playing softball since I was 6 years old. I love playing the game and all of the relationships I have built with teammates. Softball has taught me so much, both on and off the field. Most importantly, that it is okay to fail. How you come back and learn from your mistakes is what matters. I can't wait to continue to grow and play at the highest level I can. When I'm not playing softball, I enjoy spending time with friends and family."
