5. Correspondence

6. Unfinished Business

7. New Business

A. Payroll review

- a. Short-term and long-term options are being reviewed due to staff turnover with the intent to provide required training and ensuring we are fiscally responsible.

B. Coach meeting recap

- a. Prior to next year, a process and procedure document will need to be established. This year was especially difficult, as there was turnover in staff and many of the board members had to step in to fill gaps and direct trainers.
- b. Ryan provided a high-level overview of Rec teams without coaches.
- c. John will provide Isabelle dates for Mahany.

8. Director Reports

▪ John Sommercamp:

- o John continues to work with the indoor facility broker to remove RYSC from the contract due to the inability to get a permit.
- o John also provided update on what dollars will be refunded and he is continuing to look into the issue.

▪ Kevin Stringer:

- o Kevin reviewed options as there has been a turnover in staff. Both short-term and long-term options are being reviewed.
- o Kevin shared that approx. 50-60 Rec coaches have received training, and there has been positive feedback. One comment was “feels like the first time Rec is getting attention.”
 - Next session will be in September.
- o Streetball has had good turnout and kids are enjoying it.
- o Skill Set Training has attendance of about 30%.
