SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if you were already there, and I unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

REFLECTION

by: Rev. Fr. Joseph Ngeule TOKO

“Ask for Whatever You Want...” Jn 15:7

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Very often we do complain that we have been praying, asking God to grant us this or that favour, but in vain. It is not scarce either to hear many people complain that God has abandoned them because God has not granted their prayers. Others do criticize the Bible saying: “It does not tell the truth. How can it be written in Matthew 7:7 “ask and you will be given” and yet when we pray to ask certain things from God, we are not granted what we have asked.” If we only hear these complaints of people, we may be tempted to say they are right. Personally, when I listen to them, I usually ask one question: “are you sure that you are not the one who abandoned God?” Are you sure that you read the Bible well? Are you sure that you have really put into practice God’s word, and you did not receive what you wanted when you prayed? In fact, the gospel today helps us to answer such complains.

Jesus did not only say “ask for whatever you want, and it will be done for you” (Jn 15: 7) or “ask and you will be given”. (Mt 7:7) Very often we want to pick and choose what pleases us or what suits us in the Bible. It is to be taken as a whole. In fact, Jesus says clearly in the Gospel today that: “if you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask for whatever you want, and it will be done for you.” (Jn 15:7) It therefore means that the condition for your will to be done is that you remain united to Jesus and that you keep his word, that you put it into practice. If we do look at ourselves like in a mirror, could we really say that we are constantly united to Jesus? or that we are always faithful to the word of God, carrying out his will always?

If we are sincere with ourselves, we will see that we do not deserve that God should answer our prayers. We simply want Him to do our will, to grant us what we request in prayer, but we are not ready to carry out his will even if we say every day in our prayer: “Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.” This shows that we do not deserve anything from God, all that we receive from Him is a gratuitous gift and not because we have been praying Him a lot or for long as we hear some people say. That is why it is said that God loves and grants us the graces we need out of love and simply because He pays attention to us. We need to constantly make an effort to remain united to Him, to Jesus in prayer, and at the same time, to keep his word in every circumstance of our life. It is that effort that the Lord blesses in us.

Let us pray that He should grant us the graces we need so that the evil one should not seduce us and cut us off from Him without whom we can do nothing. For true, we are the branches that should remain on Christ the vine in order to bear fruits that will last. That is what should constitute our prayer intention all the days of our lives. Amen!

Eternal Father, In this, the Jubilee Year of Saints Peter and Paul Cathedral, we praise you for all blessings we have received over the past 250 years of our existence. We bless you for the lives of all those who, throughout the centuries, have helped build this vibrant community of love and service. May they rest eternally in Your divine and merciful presence. We give you thanks for all the people who gather in this Cathedral to worship you, striving to turn away from sin and follow the teachings of the faithful disciples of your Son Jesus-Christ. May Your Holy Spirit continue to lead us on the path of faith, hope, and charity, so that in every aspect of our lives, and inspired by the example of our patron Saints Peter and Paul, we may always be joyous witnesses of Jesus Christ in the world. Amen

REFLEXIÓN
 por: Padre Joseph Nguete TOKO

“Pide lo que quieras...” Jn 15:7

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo,

Muy a menudo nos quejamos de haber estado orando, pidiendo a Dios que nos conceda tal o cual favor, pero en vano. No es raro tampoco escuchar a muchas personas quejarse de que Dios los ha abandonado porque Dios no ha concedido sus oraciones. Otros sí critican la Biblia diciendo: “No dice la verdad. ¿Cómo puede estar escrito en Mateo 7:7 “pedid y se os dará” y sin embargo cuando oramos para pedir ciertas cosas a Dios, no se nos concede lo que hemos pedido? Si sólo escuchamos estas quejas de la gente, podemos sentirnos tentados a decir que tienen razón. Personalmente, cuando los escucho suelo hacer una pregunta: “¿estás seguro de que no eres tú quien abandonó a Dios?” ¿Estás seguro de que lees bien la Biblia? ¿Estás seguro de que realmente has puesto en práctica la palabra de Dios y no recibiste lo que deseabas cuando oraste? De hecho, el evangelio actual nos ayuda a responder a esas quejas.

Jesús no dijo sólo “pedid lo que queráis y se os hará” (Jn 15, 7) o “pedid y se os dará”. (Mt 7:7) Muy a menudo queremos escoger lo que nos agrada o lo que nos conviene en la Biblia. Debe tomarse en su conjunto. De hecho, Jesús dice claramente en el Evangelio de hoy que: “si permanecéis en mí y mis palabras permanecen en vosotros, pedid lo que queráis y os será hecho”. (Jn 15,7) Significa, por tanto, que la condición para que se haga vuestra voluntad es que permanezcáis unidos a Jesús y que guardéis su palabra, que la pongáis en práctica. Si nos miramos como en un espejo, ¿podríamos realmente decir que estamos constantemente unidos a Jesús? ¿O que seamos siempre fieles a la palabra de Dios, cumpliendo siempre su voluntad? Si somos sinceros con nosotros mismos, veremos que no merecemos que Dios responda nuestras oraciones. Simplemente queremos que Él haga nuestra voluntad, que nos conceda lo que le pedimos en oración, pero no estamos preparados para realizar su voluntad aunque digamos todos los días en nuestra oración: “Hágase tu voluntad en la tierra como en el cielo”.

REFLEXIÓN continuada

“ Esto demuestra que no merecemos nada de Dios, todo lo que recibimos de El es un regalo gratuito y no porque llevemos mucho o mucho tiempo orándole como escuchamos decir a algunas personas. Por eso se dice que Dios nos ama y nos concede las gracias que necesitamos por amor y simplemente porque nos presta atención. Necesitamos hacer un esfuerzo constante para permanecer unidos a Él, a Jesús en la oración y, al mismo tiempo, cumplir su palabra en cada circunstancia de nuestra vida. Es ese esfuerzo el que el Señor bendice en nosotros.

Oremos para que nos conceda las gracias que necesitamos para que el maligno no nos seduzca y nos separe de Aquel sin el cual nada podemos hacer. En verdad, somos los pámpanos que deben permanecer en Cristo la vid para dar frutos duraderos. Esto es lo que debe constituir nuestra intención de oración todos los días de nuestra vida. ¡Amén!

Regina Caeli

Queen of Heaven

V. Queen of Heaven, rejoice, alleluia.
 R. For He whom you did merit to bear, alleluia.
 V. Has risen, as he said, alleluia.
 R. Pray for us to God, alleluia.
 V. Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary, alleluia.
 R. For the Lord has truly risen, alleluia.

Let us pray. O God, who gave joy to the world through the resurrection of Thy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, grant we beseech Thee, that through the intercession of the Virgin Mary, His Mother, we may obtain the joys of everlasting life. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Regina Caeli is said in place of the Angelus, during Eastertide (Easter Sunday through Pentecost Sunday)
