When it comes to making a permanent hire, you want to feel sure that you have chosen the right candidate. With our extensive database of qualified candidates and rigorous candidate screening process, Career Connections can help you feel confident in your hiring decision.

Making a direct-hire placement through Career Connections has many advantages. Some of our cost-saving benefits include:

Pay Only If We Succeed

We will only bill you if we make a satisfactory placement, so there is no risk in including our services in your candidate search. If we are successful, we will bill you a percentage of the anticipated annual income of the employee.

Save Time

Let us spend the time and effort to screen all applicants so that you don't have to. In addition to our thorough initial screening process, should you extend an offer to a candidate, we will also take care of final paperwork and screening steps, including background checks and drug screens.

Free Advertising & Recruitment

We will reach out to over 40 local and national recruiting resources to advertise your position, and we will cover all advertising costs.

In addition to saving you money, using Career Connections for your direct-hire staffing needs also gives you the security and convenience of having access to candidates from our exclusive database.

Receive in-depth candidate data.

Gain extensive qualifying candidate information in addition to a resume to help you decide who to interview.

Access difficult to reach candidates.

Reach candidates who are currently employed and passively searching for a new, permanent position.

Your satisfaction is guaranteed!

If, within three months from the placement, the employee is no longer working for you, we will refund your money!
