LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

Love, Strength and Support in Olde Oaks/Waterford Overcomes Hurricane Harvey

The compassion and desire to help, demonstrated by the residents here in Olde Oaks/Waterford Park, is amazing. Getting out notices as predictions got worse, staging a launching site and landing site on TC Jester – complete with greeters pulling dry towels from baskets and covering rescuees as they climbed out, offering umbrellas, helping hands and a nice garage to take shelter in with water bottles and chairs. So many were involved in remediation. Tearing out, throwing out, cleaning, spraying, pet sitting, supplies, sharing equipment, food and beds and more food! This is a community that comes together to help each other even if the support and help is shown by a monetary donation. I am so proud to live in a neighborhood with an abundance of helping, caring people who want no recognition at all except a smile and seeing expressions of grateful support and love from weary, worried neighbors.

Hopefully, your street will be able to pick an area to gather to celebrate National Night Out. Just bring out chairs, some food and drink, and maybe a game or two. It will be a much better setting to spend time with neighbors. A time to enjoy and have fun.

The Board has been trying to work in a few areas that need attention as well as normal Board activities. Please consider offering your services or even running for a Board position. We are always looking for “a few good men” (and of course we mean women, too.) We understand Harvey has caused many problems which every one of us will have to deal with or be patient with. Thank you for being who you are during a trying time.

Tuesday, October 3

Plan on joining your neighbors as Olde Oaks /Waterford Park promotes crime prevention and "neighbors looking out for neighbors." Residents are encouraged to turn on their porch lights, lock their doors and spend the evening with your neighbors. If you don't have a block party already planned and you'd like to do that, give Chatina a call or email her for more information. If your street isn't doing anything and you'd like to participate, consider organizing an event for your street.

Flooding Damages

Cypress Creek Cultural District CreekFest Canceled for 2017

Along with so many neighbors on Cypress Creek, the Cypress Creek Cultural District sustained serious damage from Hurricane Harvey. As a result, CreekFest has been canceled for 2017 but plans are to return in full force next year.

The Centrum and Cypress Creek Christian Church and Community Center, the Barbara Bush Library, the Pearl Fincher Museum of Fine Arts, and the Greenway trails experienced costly damages. All are working hard to become operative as soon as possible, and need the support of the northwest community to aid the effort to do so.

"The army of volunteers and outpouring of support has been miraculous," said Clara Lewis, Vice President of the Cypress Creek Cultural District. "This spirit of renewal and community concern will carry us through."

Contributions may be made by visiting <https://paypal.me/cypresscreekcultural>. Please include a note indicating your gift is for Harvey relief.

Thinking about buying or selling? Give me a call today!

With real estate prices rebounding and consumer confidence growing across the country, many people are deciding that 2017 is the year to finally make a move to a new home. If you're considering a move this year, I'd love to help you get your plan started.

FOOTNOTES BOOK CLUB

This month our choice is The Underground Railroad by Colson Whitehead.

We'll meet on October 24. The location is to be determined as unfortunately the original hostess was flooded out as were so many, many residents of Olde Oaks. Discussion leader will be Susan Whitehead.

In this particular book about the underground railroad we see the horrors of slavery but also hope in the future because of the railroad. It centers around Cora, about 17 years old, who has lived on a cotton plantation where slaves have been brutalized. Another slave, Caesar, wants her to run away with him. This is very risky business as the slave catcher, Ridgeway, would be sure to go after them; and he does. She flees from state to state and encounters different experiences at each part of the journey.

One could easily cheer Cora's strong will to escape the horrors of bondage, and we can dwell on a part of history we all share. Colson Whitehead is the author of six novels. He won the 2017 Pulitzer Prize for fiction with this book, the 2016 National Book Award, and it was a #1 New York Times bestseller. He was a finalist for and a winner of other literary awards. New York City is his home along with his wife, literary agent Julie Barer, and two children. One online site gave an interesting list of fourteen facts about Whitehead; a few are as follows: He loves Stephen King and horror stories in general. Male and female characters are equally difficult to write. The fugitive classified ads in this book are real ads from North Carolina newspapers. There may be a movie adaptation of Railroad in the future. So, we'll see about the latter. So many of the books we've read in book club have been made into movies, but it's been said by someone to "read the book first." Do call me for details.

Words From the Editor

Olde Oaks/Waterford Park's LOVE, STRENGTH AND SUPPORT Overcome Hurricane Harvey

Boats, kayaks, dinghies and men, women and children helping each other and working together in an amazing choreographed dance of purpose. God was here.

For all the families who lost it all and those who lost a little, we all gained more in love, friendships, understanding, humility, service and perseverance. For all those on the front lines, those in every level of rescue efforts and supporters making it happen, gratitude and humility exude from everyone's heart and soul for being part of such an incredible community. We are deeply sorry and pray for our families and friends affected by Harvey. We pray as a community. Always doing the right thing because we care. Harvey will not be forgotten, pain will endure and we will continue in our support in the coming months during your recovery. Thank you for standing up, in, out and for the cause of helping another. Everyone did his or her part in creating the team that brought help to so many. We are an amazing community of love, strength and support. We are the residents of Olde Oaks/Waterford Park. Together Strong!

Texas Renters May Be Eligible for Federal Help

Texas renters who experienced losses due to Hurricane Harvey could be eligible for disaster-recovery assistance from FEMA and the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA).

Grants:

Renters may be eligible for grants from FEMA to help with such disaster-related expenses as:

- Renting a home when the renter's previous one is uninhabitable due to the disaster.
- Disaster-related medical and dental expenses.
- Replacement or repair of necessary personal property lost or damaged in the disaster, such as appliances and furniture, textbooks and computers used by students, and work equipment or tools used by the self-employed.
- Repair or replacement of vehicles damaged by the disaster.
- Disaster-related funeral and burial expenses.

These are not loans and don't have to be repaid.

They are not taxable income and won't affect eligibility for Social Security, Medicaid, welfare assistance, SNAP benefits and several other programs. Renters may apply at DisasterAssistance.gov.

Loans:

Renters may qualify for a low-interest SBA loan of up to $40,000 to repair or replace personal property.

For more information, call SBA's Disaster Assistance Customer Service Center at 800-659-2955 or visit sba.gov/disaster. TTY users may call 800-877-8339. Applicants may also apply online using the Electronic Loan Application via SBA's secure website at disasterloan.sba.gov/ela.

Recovery Begins After Hurricane Harvey

The Pearl Fincher Museum of Fine Arts took on some damages as a result of Hurricane Harvey. Now the costly process of restoration has already begun, and insurance covers only part of these crucial expenses.

The museum urgently needs support from the community to help with this financial challenge.

A special fund to help “Restore the Pearl” has been established so gifts can easily be made from anywhere. Donors can give by texting pearlart to 243725 and choosing a donation amount, or by visiting <http://bidpal.net/pearlart>.

The Pearl will be closed while repairs are made, and the hope is to re-open as soon as possible this fall. Donations will enable the museum to make vital repairs so the Pearl can continue to serve the community with art and educational programming for all to enjoy.

For help with these unanticipated costs, the museum must rely on the generosity of the community, which ten years ago turned the dream of the Pearl into a reality in northwest Houston.

“We are so grateful for the many volunteers who have come to the Pearl to provide help and encouragement during this time,” said Ani Boyajian, who began her appointment as Director of the Pearl just a few weeks before the storm. “This is an amazing community. Together we will emerge stronger and with a greater appreciation for each other and all that makes this unique corner of the world so special.”

About the Pearl

The Pearl Fincher Museum of Fine Arts exists to provide direct, first-hand access to original works of art, and to offer outstanding educational and public programming. As the only Fine Arts museum outside the city center of Houston, the Pearl operates completely through the generosity of local individuals, businesses and foundations, and is free to all.

Hurricane Harvey Recovery Benefit with LARRY GATLIN AND THE GATLIN BROTHERS

Red Bird Productions is proud to announce its inaugural event, a recovery benefit for those hit hardest by Hurricane Harvey, on Sunday, October 8 at 4 p.m. featuring Grammy Award-winning musical artists Larry Gatlin and The Gatlin Brothers Band.

Over 50 years ago Larry, Steve, and Rudy Gatlin started singing together in their little hometown of Abilene, Texas and from these humble beginnings went on to make musical history. Over the course of a four-decade career that has taken the Gatlin Brothers from dusty Texas stages to White House performances, from Broadway to Grammy Awards at the top of the country charts, there has been one unifying element: music.

Now these legendary performers come to Houston's Great Northwest to share their uniquely harmonic vocal style with Houston audiences to benefit the recovery efforts for Hurricane Harvey. Appearing in concert at Klein Cain High School's brand new theater, the Gatlin Brothers bring their patriotic and family-friendly brand of country and inspirational music to the stage in a special celebration of not only one of country music's most beloved and harmonic families, but also of the character and spirit of one of Texas' and America's greatest cities.

Seating is reserved and tickets range from $45 to $85. Reserve tickets at www.redbirdproductions.org or call our friendly box office at 281-583-7575. Klein Cain High School is located at 10201 Spring Cypress Road.

Deed Violation Reporting

Follow the basic steps for proper reporting. This helps the management company help residents stay in compliance. Talk to the neighbor; if you feel the neighbor is uncooperative or in need of assistance, please contact the management company by phone or email.

Deed restrictions are strictly enforced. To report violations, contact Pam Hummel, Assistant Community Manager, at 281-945-4661 or Pam.Hummel@crest-management.com.

Dancing With Friends

Come on out and join your friends and neighbors as we dance the night away at Roger's. Contact Roger at romak@swbell.net to find out more or to let him know that you would like to join in.

CYPRESS CREEK FACE

Foundation for the Arts and Community Enrichment

Unfortunately, Hurricane Harvey flooded our beautiful hall, The Centrum. Our Box Office is back in action selling tickets at 281-440-4850 between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. and on our website.

If you have tickets to any of our performances this fall you do not need to contact us at this time. You may continue to purchase tickets for all performances this season, including those that will change venues. Once we know the new locations, we will contact you regarding your tickets. We will make sure to share further updates as soon as we have them.

We will post the new locations on our website cypresscreekface.org and Facebook page as soon as we have them confirmed.

UPCOMING PERFORMANCES:

Just Imagine ... The John Lennon Experience
Postponed to a later date

ROCO: Principal Wind Trio • Tuesday, October 10

The River Oaks Chamber Orchestra (or ROCO) Principle Wind Trio ensemble includes Alecia Lawyer on oboe, Nathan Williams on clarinet, and Kristin Wolf Jensen on bassoon. Their concert will feature music by women composers.

Promenade Series performance – Tickets: $6 – $12

Garry Krinsky's Toying with Science
Saturday, October 21

Toying with Science is a fast-paced, varied and dynamic program. It combines circus skills, mime, original music, and audience involvement in the exploration of the scientific principles of gravity, leverage, fulcrums, and simple machines. Garry brings a number of science-based toys to life with motion, music, humor and insight. He grants audience members a chance at stardom by inviting a few to join him on stage and participate in juggling or balancing activities with his playful guidance.

Family Series performance – Tickets: $10 – $15

CLASSIFIED POLICY

Don't forget that the classifieds are free to all Olde Oaks residents. Use this section to buy and sell personal items. All we ask is that no adult-owned business ads be turned in, such as real estate, in-home operated businesses or fee-based services. If you'd like to advertise your adult-owned business and support our newsletter, call Champions Printing & Publishing, Inc. at 281-583-7661. The editor retains exclusive right to accept or reject any classified deemed unfit. Your classified will run for one month. If you want to run it for a longer period of time, please resubmit your ad by the newsletter deadline for each month you'd like it to appear.

ADVERTISING INFORMATION

The Olde Oaks Community Newsletter is published monthly for the residents of Olde Oaks. It is made possible by your neighborhood businesses and friends from ads purchased in the newsletter. Please support these businesses. If you would like to help sponsor this newsletter by purchasing ad space, please call Champions Printing & Publishing, Inc. at 281-583-7661 by the 10th of each month. Please submit classified ads directly to your editor.
