

U and Universal

Who is Robert M. Hensel?

Robert M. Hensel was born with Spina Bifida. He is a leading figure within the disability community, advocating for the treatment and rights of people with disabilities. Robert is also an international Poet-Writer and has over 900 publications that has earned him nominations for various awards. He is also a Guinness and Ripley's world record holder for the longest non-stop wheelie using a wheelchair. This was done to raise money for wheelchair ramps in his community. Many of Robert's accomplishments are noted at the Museum of Disability History in Buffalo N.Y. Robert says; "God took my disability and turned it into this-ability"

Did you know?

Universal is taking applications for various positions at all of our locations. To apply online, go to: <https://umhs.net/employment-application>