About Us!

Owners Dave and Julie

Veterans who met while stationed in California in 2007, they share a love of the bonds created over a shared meal. They have a passion for serving up scratch-made food and getting to know their guests!

Kitchen Manager Pete

He has been with Quarters since it's opening and has contributed a great deal to this menu. He loves hearing about how much guests like their food so let him know!

Bar Manager Cheyenne

She has been with Quarters since early 2023 and is the brains behind our Quarters Cocktails! She has a true passion for making every customer smile and is sure to make your dining experience amazing!

Chef James

His positivity and eagerness bring so much to our team. Say hi to him and you will get a smile that you can't help but return. He pours that positivity into the food he makes so let him know you can feel it!

Bartender Maitland

She has been with Quarter's since mid-2023 and is the smiling face you see when you walk through the door. She will tell you about the best things on the menu based on your tastes and is always up for conversation with her customers!

Server Jade

They are our newest server and always willing to go above and beyond for their customers. You may hear them singing along to the music behind the bar when they aren't in conversation with their guests!

Bartender Wyatt

He is our fill-in bartender and, while you may not see him often, he makes a huge impact on our team by being there when we need him. If you are lucky enough to dine while he is serving, you are sure to have a great time as he will always make you feel welcome and well taken care of!

We're pretty sure we have the BEST team in Greenville! A special thanks to them for everything they do and the support they provide daily!
