Franklin's record for the 1973/74 season was 2-17-1

This was the last season for coach Ralph Olsen. Bob Luccini would become the new coach starting the 1974/75 season. Despite the poor record, the team had undergone a big change in fortunes. The new rink was greatly appreciated, no more 5:am. practices in Walpole, at exorbitant prices, and Franklin would now receive 50% of the gate at home games. The revenue would go a long way to cover the cost of ice time for practices, the cost of which was less than half of the former cost and they received day time practice hours. With the new local rink townspeople were turning out for the games. The school board was impressed with these developments and voted to fully fund the team. The newspapers, realizing that Franklin Hockey was here to stay, started writing up the games from this point on.

Franklin had graduated ten front line players from the year before and had a real rebuilding job to do that would require two years to finish due to another large graduating class, (9 Seniors). The next year or two will be a struggle to continue as a winning team.
