

SWEDISH-AMERICAN CHURCH BOOKS – GREAT GENEALOGICAL RESOURCE!

Kathy.meade@arkivdigital.com

INTRODUCTION

Many Swedes who immigrated to North America (the United States and Canada) joined a Swedish-American church. While most of these congregations were Lutheran, there were Mission Covenant, Baptist, Methodist, Evangelical Free, and others. Not every immigrant joined a Swedish-American church, but various scholars estimate that 20 to 40% of the immigrants became members of these churches during the mass migration period (1840-1930).

In the book Swedes in America, 1638-1938, published by Yale University Press in 1938, the breakdown of Swedish-American churches and members was shown as follows:

Denomination	# of Churches	# of Members
Augustana Synod (Lutheran)	1,203	254,677
Mission Covenant	441	45,000
Swedish Baptist	300	36,820
Swedish Methodist	175	19,441
Swedish Evangelical Free	150	9,000

Many of these churches kept detailed church registers similar to the church books within Sweden. The Lutheran and Covenant records are more detailed than the other denominations. These records can be very helpful in identifying where the Swedish immigrant came from in Sweden and often provide good birth dates so that one can jump the pond to research the family ancestry in the Swedish church books. The records also complement the state and federal census records in providing information about the immigrant's family movements.

SWEDISH-AMERICAN CHURCH BOOK RECORDS

The Swedish-American church books usually include the following types of records:

- Congregation records or church registers (Församlingsböcker)
- Birth and christening records (Födelse- och dopböcker)
- Marriage records (Vigelsböcker)
- Death and burial records (Död- och begravningsböcker)
- Member reception records (Inflyttningslängder eller Intagna medlemmar)
- Member dismissal records (Utflyttningslängder eller Utträdde medlemmar)
- Catechetical records (Konfirmationsbok)
- Protocols (Protokoll)
- Accountings (Räkenskaper)
- Anniversary documents (Jubileumsskrift)
- Other types of documents

CONGREGATION RECORDS

The congregation records or church registers include similar information to the Swedish household/congregation records. The type of information you may find consists of the names of the household members, birth date, birthplace, baptismal date, marriage dates of the head of the household, arrival date in America, and arrival date in the congregation. Some of these books have alphabetical name indexes. These records are very helpful in identifying where a person came from in Sweden. The Lutheran and Covenant church registers usually provide more detail than the other denominations.

BIRTH AND CHRISTENING RECORDS

The birth and christening records are similar to the Swedish ones. The contents vary by congregation, but they usually contain the child's name, birth date, baptismal date, parents' names, and names of baptismal witnesses. Most of the time, the mother's married name and not her maiden name is shown. These records are organized in chronological order, often by baptismal date. Occasionally, there is a cross-reference to the family in the church register or congregation record.

MARRIAGE RECORDS

The marriage records are an important source because it is the one source where the female's maiden name is shown. The contents of the marriage record usually include the names of the groom and bride, the date of the marriage, and the places where the bride and groom are from. These records are organized in chronological order.

DEATH AND BURIAL RECORDS

The death and burial records show the deceased's name, death date, burial date, age, sometimes names of nearest relatives, and cause of death. Unfortunately, abbreviations may be used in names such as "P. A. Swanson" versus the complete name, and married women are often noted as "Mrs. Charles Eklund." These are organized in chronological order, usually by the funeral date. Occasionally, there is a cross-reference to the family in the church register or congregation record.

MEMBER RECEPTION RECORDS

These records record new parish members, usually stating the person's name, date of admission, and the place where the person came from. Sometimes, these records can help follow a person's movements in North America.

MEMBER DISMISSAL RECORDS

These records record the names of members who leave the parish. Usually, you will find the person's name, departure date, and where the person is going. These records can help follow a person's movements in North America.

CATECHETICAL OR CONFIRMATION RECORDS

The catechetical or confirmation records provide the names of the confirmed. Most of the time, these are only lists of names, but occasionally, the birth date and the parents' names of the confirmed will be shown.

PROTOCOLS

The protocols are administrative records for the parish. They contain minutes of organizational meetings and decisions relating to parish matters.

ACCOUNTINGS

The account book will include records of financial transactions such as cash books, bookkeeping records, and real estate transactions.

ANNIVERSARY DOCUMENTS

In many congregation archives, you will find church anniversary documents celebrating years in existence, such as 25 years, 50 years, 75 years, or 100 years. These documents usually present a short history of the church or a church organization, such as a singing group or other group within the church. In addition to the church's history, biographical information and photos of church members are included.

KORSBANERET – THE BANNER OF THE CROSS

The Korsbaneret (The Banner of the Cross) was a yearly calendar published by the Augustana Lutheran Synod from 1880 to 1950. These booklets contain many articles, which include church and congregation news, obituaries of the clergy and their spouses, articles about synods, schools, religion, and poetry. These have been added to ArkivDigital.

You can find these in ArkivDigital by:

1. Access app.arkivdigital.se
2. Select Archive Search
3. Select archive type, printed literature
4. Select country, United States
5. Select tryckta skrifter, USA
6. You will find the issues listed by the title, Korsbaneret, and year, in the volume list

At the end of the volume, Korsbaneret, 1929, you will find an index or register for the volumes for the first fifty years, 1880-1929. There are indexes for various categories, such as general news, obituaries of ministers and their spouses, illustrations or photos of churches, and portraits of individuals.

The index for 1930-1950 begins on page 169 in the volume, Korsbaneret 1950.

OTHER DOCUMENTS

You may find other documents dependent upon the parish, such as church school records, tomb or cemetery records, historical notes, church constitution, attachments to migration records, newspaper clippings, and other documents.

WHERE ARE THE RECORDS?

In many cases, the original church books are preserved at the church. If the church is still active, one can contact the church to find out about the availability of the records. Some original documents can be found at county archives or museums, the church's headquarters, such as the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (for Lutheran records), and sometimes in a church member's home.

MICROFILMS

The most extensive and complete set of Swedish-American church books on microfilm is at the Swenson Swedish Immigration Research Center at Augustana College in Rock

Island, Illinois (<https://www.augustana.edu/swenson/collections/churchrecords>). These microfilms were created in the 1960s and 1970s by the Swedish Emigrant Institute through Lennart Setterdahl. These microfilms include church book records from the following archives:

- Evangelical Lutheran Church of America (ECLA)
- Evangelical Covenant Church
- Evangelical Free Church of America (EFCA)

In addition, there are Swedish-Methodist and Swedish-Baptist films. Records are from both the United States and Canada.

SWEDISH-AMERICAN ARCHIVES OF GREATER CHICAGO –

HTTP://COLLECTIONS.CARLI.ILLINOIS.EDU/CDM/LANDINGPAGE/COLLECTION/NPU_ANSGAR

On this site, you will find images of the church records for St. Ansgarius Church in Chicago from 1849 to 1896. This church was founded in Chicago, Illinois, and is the oldest Scandinavian-American Church in Chicago. The church books were saved while the original church building was destroyed in the Chicago fire of 1871. This is a free site and can help locate early immigrants to Chicago.
