Stephanie Hall, CIT Hired at J & D Rack

Publish Date: February 21st, 2023

Stephanie has been hired to bring her 25 years of extensive knowledge & operations of the construction industry to J & D Rack. Her intimate ties to many construction firms in the tri-state area have aided in establishing her as a well-known asset to the industry. She will be leading the charge in operations, business development and community relations. J & D Rack is a 4th generation family-owned excavation & site utility company based in Monfort Heights.
