President's Message

Diane, Julie and I so loved doing the July presentation and workshop for the guild! We received quite a bit of positive feedback too. I am now onto my next great adventure, my new long arm computerized quilting machine. Lots to learn on this adventure!

Hard to believe quilt retreat is less than a month away. I need to get my projects together for retreat.

I hope you are surviving the heat! I love the early morning hours when you can open the doors and let the fresh air in.

Looking forward to hearing Ann Scott's lecture. Hope to see you there!

Peggy

Kaleidoscope of Quilts Show October 21st

Our quilt show is just around the corner. We will have entry forms available at the meeting and entry form is attached. We will also have sign ups for different jobs during the show. We do need a team to take on setting up the boutique. Also we will need help setting up the racks for the show. Significant others are so helpful with this. We will set up Friday October 20th at 4:30 pm

Pictures

As always we will have pictures on our quilt show entry forms. We will use the picture you have in the directory. If you would like a different picture, we will be taking new pictures at the July and August meeting.

Quilt Show Boutique Kits Available

We have quilt kits available for tortilla warmers and two sizes of microwave bowls. We will have them at the next meeting. If you would like to donate items to sell at the boutique we would love to have them. The items need to be handmade and new.

SCRAPPY PROGRAM

What a great program we had at our July Guild Meeting!! Thanks Julie, Peggy & Diane for presenting so many interesting ideas on how to use scraps from our stash.

I was so interested in Diane's challenge (to herself) where she took a bag of donated scraps, and made a quilt out of the contents....then made another one...then made another one...when she held up a sandwich bag of fabric that was all she had left over from her quilt sewing everyone laughed. Too funny!!!

I have heard said that when you set out to make scrappy quilts, that you end up with more secret is: additional the bag. that last my sewing fabric in your stash afterwards. Guess the don't go out and purchase fabric, just use what is in Maybe I should cross-stitch sentence and hang it over machine 😊

Kaleidoscope Friends

Thank you to Joan Nickerson and Patty Smith for the philanthropy quilt donations!!!

The Scrappy Workshop was a lot of fun - and a great way to get to know other guild members better. I was inspired by Anna Lancia, who brought boxes of fabric squares she cuts out and saves as she completes various projects. After a while she has enough squares to sew together into a beautiful scrappy quilt! - all from leftovers. Way to go - Anna! 😊

Sewing helps you make new friends and gives joy to those you share your talents with. This past week I was packing up my mother's house - and there by the dining room window was the old White sewing machine, in a mahogany cabinet with knee control that had been my grandmother's when she set up housekeeping, and then my mother's. It was the machine I learned to sew on as I grew up. It has stood in the dining room, by the window for just over a hundred years. It brought back so many memories. Sadly, it is time to let it go, but I like to think that someone will find it and love it - like we did. Maybe she (or he) will join a quilt guild and continue the circle of friends and love.

Keep those sewing machines whirling!

Opportunity Quilt News by Glen Baker

I would just like to remind everyone that tickets are still available for pickup for our Opportunity Quilt. We will be taking the quilt to the September meeting of the Chula Vista Quilt Guild. Ticket sales represent the major source of income that enables our monthly programs and speakers.

Thanks to all who have already turned in their ticket money.
