The count down to our quilt show has started! We have lots of quilts from our members. The show is laid out. Placards being printed. Thanks, Karen, for entering them all in Excel. Debbie is going through our inventory for drapes and boutiques and getting all our ducks lined up. So appreciate everyone's efforts. Please look at article below about time table to drop off quilts, set up, the show and tear down

This meeting is our annual philanthropy meeting. We will be doing placemats for Meals on Wheels. Please bring your sewing machine and join us. Opportunity Quilt Chair Person

Thank you Glen Baker for doing such a great job with the opportunity quilt. Glen is ready for someone else to have this opportunity! The Great News is we have two quilts in waiting so for the next two years we are set. We need someone to handle getting tickets out to people, tracking who has paid and organizing showing the opportunity quilt at guilds and different venues.

Holiday Party is Rapidly Approaching!

Our 2023 Holiday Party is fast approaching. The date is December 13. Doors open at 12:30 for appetizers and meal will be served around 1. We will have sign-up sheets at the October meeting for helpers to decorate the tables and for food items for the pot-luck lunch. Guild will provide a sliced ham and maybe a turkey.

Yes!!!! The meeting you have been waiting for all year is finally here, this month 😊 We will be making placemats for Meals-on-Wheels. Kits are all prepared and packaged for you. All you need is your sewing machine, scissors and thread (OK, I'm bringing a seam ripper also, just in case 😊) Here's the list:

If you haven't made your quilt for philanthropy yet this year, I have some quilt kits available for you. Stop by the philanthropy table and pick one up.

Keep those sewing machines whirling! See you in October!
