ASSIGNMENTS:

Homework and writing assignments need to be turned in on the week of that chapters due date, check the syllabus for all due dates. Assignments are typed; if hand written (must get pre-approval by Dr. Beverly Wright). Assignments will be graded on content, neatness, spelling and grammar.

LATE, MAKE UP AND EXTRA CREDIT:

Late work will be penalized accordingly. (5 points deduction for every week your homework assignment is late, this includes your weekly writing assignment). There is no make-up or extra credit available.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY:

Students are responsible for doing their own work and avoiding all forms of academic dishonesty. The most common academic honesty violation is cheating. Cheating includes, but is not limited to: Submitting material that is not one's own, communicating with any person during an exam, other than a faculty member.

GRADING SCALE:

100% - 90% = A

89% - 80% = B

79% - 70% = C

69% - 60% = D

59% - Below = F

All homework/writing assignments are due the following week (excluding holidays and finals). There will be a 5 points deduction per week for All late homework /writing assignments.

CLASS EXPECTATIONS AND ATTENDANCE:

Students are expected to be present for, and engage in, every class. Attendance and active engagement are essential to the learning process in this course. Class involvement through discussion is always preferred over a straight lecture. Students are not allowed to distract or disrupt other students' learning (this includes cell phone and laptop computer usage). See orientation manual for attendance policy.

DISASTER PLANNING:

In the event that the bible college is officially closed, due to natural or man-made disaster; please submit a good contact number(s) and e-mail address to your instructor, on the first day of class for proper notification of any class cancellations. Adjustments to the syllabus may be made by the instructor as needed.

Syllabus subject to modification
