

Recruiting 4 Part-Time Tips

You recognise a skill gap in your team. Have you considered using your budget to employ a more senior part-time resource? Below are some tips:

<input type="checkbox"/>	Be clear about the work that needs to be done and the expertise that you need to execute the work. Be flexible about how and when the work gets done.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Find a recruiter who specialises in recruiting part-time roles.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Consider a senior consultant or contractor.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Consider experienced professionals who have return to complete post-graduate studies. Contact universities to explore how you could advertise to these groups.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Tag or flag that your job could be performed part-time in your ads and communications about the role.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Consider your pool of current or past employees who might be interested in a part-time or short-term contract.

If you are looking for experienced part-time and/or short-term human resources or change management professionals to:

- 🌱 coach and support an existing team
- 🌱 design and build a team that does not yet exist
- 🌱 lead initiatives and projects
- 🌱 free up the capacity of your current team

Book in for a free consultation call with Angela to discuss. We can work out the most valuable next steps for you and your business. BOOK NOW.