WELCOME TO MORNING GLORY!

Welcome Back!

There is nothing more healing than art. This unprecedented year has deeply affected us all. Art encourages us to explore and bring beauty to our lives.

We invite you to engage with our artists, from all over the country, discuss their craft and shop their one-of-a-kind works of art. Stop by our Wisconsin Craft Info Booth and learn more about how you can become involved in ensuring the legacy of fine craft/art in our state and region.

Thank you again for your support.

2021 SHOW HIGHLIGHTS

Our new home!

We are thrilled to once again call this beautiful plaza our new home. We're in the heart of Milwaukee's new sports and entertainment center, the Deer District, which is home to the Milwaukee Bucks and so many new options for food, drink and FUN!

ARTIST AWARDS

Judges will circulate and choose honorees on Saturday. This years judges are Frank Juarez and Lynn Novotnak who will visit each booth to select artists for awards. Winners will be announced late in the day Saturday with a celebratory visit. Look for the winners' distinctive awards created by Wisconsin Craft member/artist Andrew Linderman and bright certificates on display in the their booths later that day.

The awards are:

Margaret Rahill Best in Show - 1 Award

Award of Excellence - 4 Awards

Award of Merit - 4 Awards

Annette Hirsh Memorial Award for Excellence in Jewelry - 1 Award

Sanders Visual Images Award of Excellence - 1 Award

The Annette Hirsh Memorial Award for Excellence in Jewelry is a memorial award in honor of longtime Wisconsin Craft (formerly WDCC) member Annette Hirsh, who passed away on August 1, 2020. Annette is a nationally known metalsmith who dedicated her life to her art and family. Known for her creative and whimsical jewelry and Judaica, Annette also created paintings, drawings, prints and sculptures. Annette served for many years on the Board of Directors for WDCC and held the role of historian. No one knew the organization's rich history better than Annette!

NEW FOR 2021: UWM EMERGING ARTIST TENT

The UWM Emerging Artists Tent features the work of five art students who work in a variety of media including ceramics, sculpture, printmaking, painting, and jewelry & metalsmithing. These artists proudly represent the outstanding Peck School of the Arts Art & Design program and their enthusiasm and skill shows in their work.

A show on this scale brings together the time and talents of hundreds of people starting a year in advance. We deeply appreciate all their efforts and generosity. A special thank you to the Morning Glory Committee members who have been meeting virtually during this pandemic year to make this show happen. You are the heart and soul of this show!

THANKS TO: Milwaukee Bucks + Fiserv Forum team • City of Milwaukee • Baer-Carlson Communications • WI Craft President Jean Wells and the committee members, as well as the dozens of tireless volunteers who happily come out each year to help with the many tasks that go into putting on a show of this size and quality.

SAVE THE DATES: Saturday & Sunday, Aug. 13 & 14, 2022
