President's Message

Rob Cain, President

LeClaire Chamber of Commerce

Hi, I am Rob Cain, President of the LeClaire Chamber of Commerce.

I am happy to say that we are all very excited about all the positive things going on in the LeClaire community and partnerships with the Chamber of Commerce!

We just had our first Chamber of Commerce Golf Outing in quite some time; I want to thank all of the sponsors, volunteers, and golfers that made the event a success. We also have sponsored the first Party in the Park movie night in partnership with LeClaire Parks and Rec for this year.

Part of my focus as the new president is to make sure we are getting involved with community events that help to improve the quality of life for LeClaire residents as well as the business community. We have also been honored to do ribbon cuttings and welcome new members to the chamber. There are also many festivals and events going on throughout this summer and upcoming fall.

The city of LeClaire has approved a new fill the storefront program to assist in getting some vacant properties up and going. This goes to show that the city of LeClaire is focused on helping us to create this great destination that is LeClaire.

The Chamber has a lot going on and I encourage everyone to get involved. Please give us your feedback as to ways we can be of service to you, our valued members, that is what the Chamber is all about.

Welcome New Chamber Members

Upcoming dates - July 8th & September 2nd

May Market Days/Chalk the Walk

Downtown LeClaire was buzzing with activity as various shops offered fantastic sidewalk sales on May 13th for May Market Days. Despite the rain and having to rearrange plans, LeClaire Park & Recreations first Chalk the Walk was a fun time for all. Aunt Hattie's had chalked their sidewalk and tempted visitors with delicious brownies while shopping their sidewalk sales.

Bamboo Baby Boutique and Bela both offered incredible "deck" sales, with Bela even giving a generous 50% off. Cody Road Trading Post and Grasshoppers had great sales that shoppers couldn't resist. Mississippi Cottage Antiques had a tempting offer of 20% off items for sale on their porch, and Nest Modern Goods delighted visitors with free treats and special deals on their bracelets during their sidewalk sale. Of heaven and earth joined in the fun with a sidewalk sale, offering items at half price. The Potter's House chalked their walk and showcased discounted teapots. Razzleberries also added to the excitement with their chalked walk, and Rising Tide Boutique had an amazing sidewalk sale with a whopping 40% off their rack. Even Shameless Chocoholic and What BBQ got into the spirit by decorating their walls with chalk.

In addition to the fabulous shopping opportunities, there was live music to keep the energy high throughout the day. From 2-5pm, Rob Dahms entertained the crowd at Dirty Water Music, while in the evening from 7-10pm, Mo Carter took the stage at Green Tree Brewery, providing a fantastic atmosphere for all.

LeClaire was the place to be for a memorable day of shopping, entertainment, and quality time with loved ones. If you missed out this time, keep an eye out for future events and make sure to mark your calendars. There's always something exciting happening in LeClaire!

Visitors were treated to complimentary tastes of Harvest Hurrah and So Sue Me Sue. To sweeten the deal, for every can of Harvest Hurrah or So Sue Me Sue purchased, another can was offered for free, making it hard to resist stocking up on these refreshing libations.

While the wine and beer tastings added a sophisticated flair to the day, there were plenty of other deals and activities to enjoy. Taste of LeClaire

On April 1st, residents and visitors indulged in a delectable showcase of the town's finest stores and experiencing the vibrant culinary scene that makes LeClaire truly special at the 2023 Taste of LeClaire.

Despite a rescheduling due to unexpected snowfall on March 25th, the event went ahead flawlessly. Attendees embarked on a culinary adventure through the heart of LeClaire. Throughout the event, 18 local shops, restaurants, and bars delighted visitors with free food and beverage samples or discounted specials. Attendees had the opportunity to discover new tastes and support local businesses.

Tourism Talk

Many love to play in LeClaire! April 15 was the first Cars & Coffee of the season, which marks the start of their 10th year thanks to Ted Souhrada! It includes many friends showing off their rides on the Levee along our beautiful stretch of the Mississippi River. Always a good time!

The 6th Annual Shops with Hops, a fun event for craft beer aficionados, was on May 20. They had 13 breweries participating with samples of craft beer. The after-party was at Green Tree Brewery with “Getting Heroes Home” receiving a donation of $3,475 as the event charity. The event organizers always do a great job of highlighting local shops and craft breweries to remind us to “Shop Small / Shop Local”! Of course, we can’t thank the public enough for coming out to have fun in LeClaire and supporting our businesses! Hats off to Bobby and Jacquelyn Bunch for continuing this fun event in LeClaire!

Memorial Day weekend saw the beginning of the 1.5-hour sightseeing cruises on the Riverboat Twilight. If you haven’t been on the Twilight before, I can’t recommend this enough. All ages enjoy it! They are offering sightseeing cruises every Saturday through August (except for August 12) at 11am, 1:30pm, and 4pm. And don’t forget – they offer spectacular 2-day cruises that help you create some great memories, too. Check out www.riverboattwilight.com for more information and to make your reservations.

We had a toasty weekend for the City-wide Garage Sales on June 2-3 sponsored by LeClaire Parks & Recreation. LeClaire has the best garage sales for a huge variety of gently used (and sometimes new) treasures!

There is truly something every night of the week, if you are planning a fun date night or like to just come hang out and meet new friends! You can find live music on Thursday through Sunday at various venues (many with outdoor seating and river views), Music BINGO on Monday at Riverview Roadhouse and Green Tree Brewery. Trivia, charity euchre, and open mic night can also be found at Green Tree Brewery!

In addition to live music, there's great shopping, dining, wine tasting, car shows, Tug Fest, and much more coming up. Find a full list of our events here:

www.visitle Claire.com/events

Be sure and check out the new businesses that have opened recently: The Potter's House, Kitsch-n Sink, Shelly's Sweet Sensations, Orange Blossom Quilt & Stichery Shoppe, and Jerry's Restaurant. There is a lot to see and do!

There is so much fun to be had that I can't mention everything here. If you want to keep updated on all the great events going on in LeClaire, you can go to www.visitle Claire.com and submit your email address to receive our e-news that goes out once a month or check out our website anytime. You can "Like" and "Follow" us on Facebook (LeClaire, Iowa), too, to see daily updates and find us on Instagram, too.

If you want to be part of the excitement and volunteer at the LeClaire Information Center, please contact me at info@visitle Claire.com. We have a lot of fun!

Thank you for your interest in LeClaire!
